SONGS AND ANTHEM

Wear the Whole Armour of God and Stand Firm in Faith

(Ezek. 37 vs 10; Eph. 6 vs 10-18)

TUNE: Forth in Thy name, O Lord, I go

1. The belt of truth I'll always wear,
God's righteousness with love I'll share;
The gospel shoes will guide my way,
To follow Christ and obey Him.
2. The shield of faith is in my hand,
Against the foes I'll firmly stand;
Salvation's helmet guards my mind,
God's perfect love I always find.
3. God's living Word, the Spirit's sword,
My strength is in my faithful Lord;
I'm in God's great and mighty band,
He leads me with His powerful hand.

Lord, Breathe on Every Bone

Tune: All things bright and beautiful.

1. Lord, breath on every dry bone,
And make our spirit strong;
Let your living word come now,
Revive our lives again.
2. Restore our hope, love and peace,
Our faith in you revive
Help us walk in all your ways,
And always follow you
3. Make us, lord, your great army,
Obedient, strong and true,
Till the whole world comes to know
the saving love of you

Dry Bones, Hear the Word of God (To the tune of "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus")

Verse 1

Dry bones, hear the Word of God,
Rise by His mighty power;
Though hope seemed gone forever,
Life blooms in God's own hour.
The Spirit breathes upon us,
Our hearts are born anew;
The Lord who raised the dry bones
Can raise and strengthen you.

Verse 2

Bone to bone together,
The Lord restores again;
He clothes us with His power,
And breaks the chains of sin.
The breath of God within us
Brings life that never ends;
He makes us stand before Him,
His purpose to defend.

Verse 3

We stand, we stand for Jesus,
His mighty army strong;
An exceeding great army,
To Him we all belong.
We'll march in faith and courage,
His banner lifted high;
Until our King returns again,
We'll serve Him all our lives.

Verse 4

No valley is too hopeless,
No heart too lost to save;
The God of resurrection
Still calls us from the grave.
So let the world now witness
The power of God's command;
Dry bones have come to glorious life,
By His almighty hand.

Ezekiel Prophesied

Ezekiel prophesied to the dry bone /3x

And they joined to serve the Lord

There are bones, standing bones, standing, dry bones /3x

And they joined to serve the Lord

And the feet bone connected to the leg bone

And the leg bone connected to the kneel bone

And the kneel bone connected to the waist bone

And they joined to serve the Lord

Chorus:

And the waist bone connected to the back bone

And the back bone connected to the neck bone

And the neck bone connected to the head bone

And they joined to serve the Lord

Bible Lesson 1

Topic: The Valley of Dry Bones

Bible Text: Ezekiel 37:1-10

Memory Verse: Ezekiel 37:10 (KJV)

"So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army."

Opening Questions:

- Have you ever seen a skeleton or the bones of a dead animal? Can you imagine seeing bones scattered all over the ground?
- Have you ever seen a dry stick or a dry leaf? Can it grow again by itself? Why or why not?
- Do you think God can bring something that seems dead back to life?

The Story of the Dry Bones

In the bible text, God showed the Prophet Ezekiel a valley full of dry bones. The bones were scattered everywhere. There was no life in them. They could not move, stand, speak, or do anything at all. It was indeed a hopeless situation. Then God told Ezekiel to speak His words to the bones. As Ezekiel obeyed, something unbelievable and amazing happened. And that's what we want to learn today; how God can bring life into dry and hopeless situations in your life.

What Dry bones represent

When prayer becomes tiring, studying the bible becomes boring, you feel shy to tell others about Jesus, you no longer enjoy being in God's presence, you easily fall into sin. All of these could be a sign of dryness in our lives. Dryness can also affect other areas of our lives not just our spiritual life. Areas such as our school work and academics, our relationships with others, our attitudes and behaviours, our peace and happiness.

You Need the Breath of God

When Ezekiel prophesied unto the bones as commanded by God, the bones came together but there was still no life in them until God breathed into them. In the same way, we need God's Holy Spirit to bring new life into every area of our lives. The bones came alive, stood up and became a very great Army. That's what God wants to do with anything that is dead in our lives. God wants to restore: our walk with Him, prayer life, peace, love for Him, joy of salvation, academics, relationship with others, bible study life, evangelism etc. God wants to bring all these areas of our lives back to life through His breath.

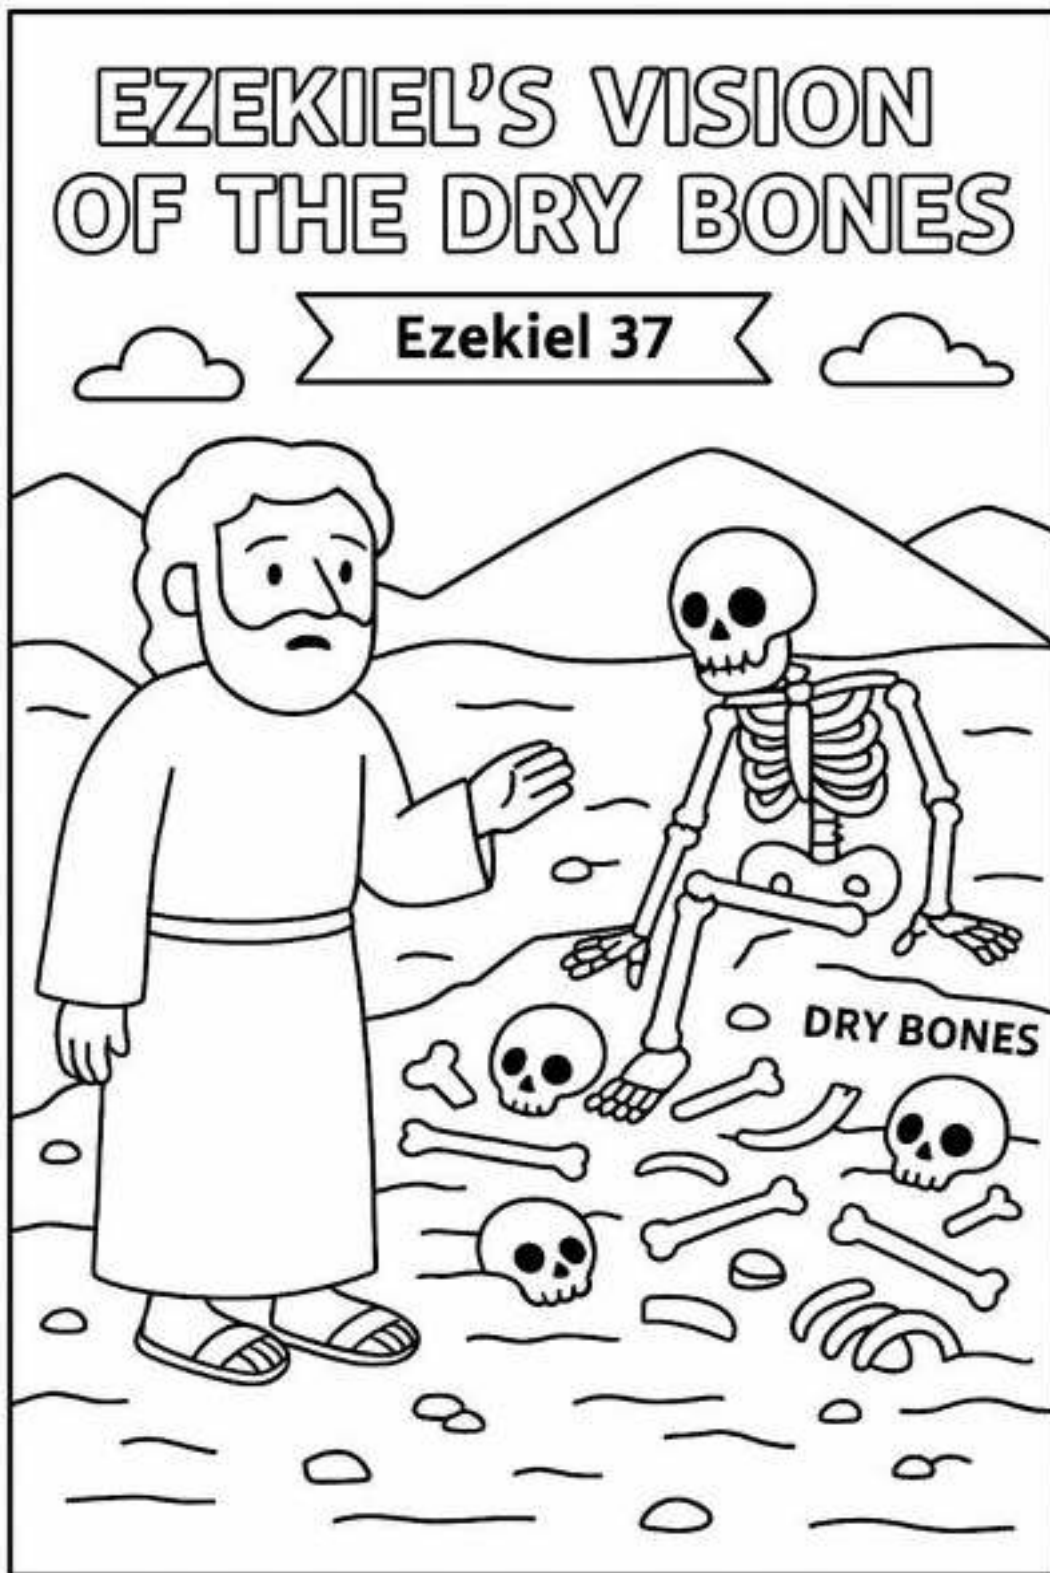

God is Able to Restore You

Sometimes we lose hope because of: Failure, Fear, Sickness, Sin, Family problems or Disappointments. But God has power to restore everything that has become weak or broken. He can restore our love for Him, joy of salvation, peace, good behavior and our passion for serving Him. God is able to get you back on the track and keep you moving again for Him just like He did to the dry bones. You can rise up again to become part of His great army.

Discussion Questions:

- Do you think there are areas of your life that are dead and dry and need the breath of God? What are those areas of your life?
- What made the dry bones come together and live again?
- Why do we need God's Holy Spirit in our daily lives?

Prayer: Dear Lord Jesus, thank You because You are the God who brings life to dry bones. Please breathe new life into my heart. Restore my love for You, my prayer life, my joy, and everything that has become dry in my life. Help me to trust You and to stand strong as part of Your great army. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Bible Lesson 2

Topic: Standing as Jesus' Army

Bible Text: Ezekiel 37:10, Ephesians 6:10-18

Memory Verse: Ephesians 6:11 "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil".

Opening Questions:

- Have you ever seen soldiers or an army? How do they dress when they are preparing for battle?
- Why do you think soldiers wear special uniforms and protective equipment?
- As Christians, who is our real enemy?

The Christian Army

A Christian army is one who has been saved from sin, follows Jesus, and is ready to live for Him every day. You remember the dry bones in the valley. When Ezekiel prophesied into them and God sent His breath into them, they became an exceeding great army. That's who God want you to be- a great army.

Why is the Armor of God Needed?

Someone going into battle needs to be protected, just like an earthly military soldier who is going for battle needs protective wears such as a helmet, boots, a shield, and a sword. The soldier could not possibly go to war without the right equipment; he would definitely be a target and most likely be wounded if not killed. In the same way, a Christian needs protection too from the dangers that comes from the enemy; the devil. If you'll be part of the great army of God, you need to always put on these protective and defensive wears to protect your heart, your mind, your thoughts from the arrows that constantly comes from Satan.

What Is the Armour of God?

The armor of God is not visible, not something we wear on our bodies rather they are attributes that God has given to you (as a Christian) to protect your heart and mind from every attack the devil launches at you. There are six of them. Let's take a look at each of them and how they are to be used.

- The Belt of Truth: This is the first thing you've got to have and wear as a Jesus army. You must always love and speak the truth. Remember the belt holds everything in place. This will help you to be grounded. So, tighten your belt of truth so that the devil will not get you.
- The Breastplate of Righteousness: Do you know if a soldier probably have bruises and some cuts on the arms and legs, that won't stop him from still fighting but it's difficult to survive a wound to the heart. That's why breastplates are essential. As followers of Christ, you have to be righteous to fight the battle. This means doing what is right according to God's word. By wearing this, you are protecting your spiritual heart from the damage that sin can cause. "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Psalm 119:11
- The Gospel Shoes of Peace: This is the third piece of the armor. It won't be nice to go bare footed to war, you've got to put on footwear to protect your feet. The shoe prepares you to tell the good news of peace. You have to be ready to share the story of how Jesus came to save us by dying for us on the cross.
- The Shield of Faith: The shield protects a soldier from arrows. Having the shield of faith means trusting God when life is difficult. When Satan sends fear, doubt, or temptation, our faith in God protects us and helps us remain strong.
- The Helmet of Salvation: This is equally important because it protects the head. This talks about our salvation. We need to receive Christ as our personal Lord and saviour. Salvation reminds us that Jesus has forgiven our sins and made us God's children. Knowing we belong to Jesus protects our minds from the devil's lies and gives us confidence to stand firm.

- The Sword of the Spirit: This represents the word of God. This is the only armor used for both defense and attack. When we know God's word, believe it, and speak it, we can resist the devil, just as Jesus did. Having God's word in your heart and on your lips keeps the devil running.

Putting on the whole Armour

Just as soldiers put on their uniforms before going into battle, Christians should put on God's armor every day. Each day, choose to: speak the truth, do what is right, be ready to share the good news, trust God completely. Remember that you belong to Jesus, so read, memorize, study and obey God's word.

When we put on the whole armour of God, we can stand strong and faithfully serve Him wherever we are.

Discussion Questions

- Where do you need to stand firm for Jesus? - in school, at church, at home, on the playground etc.
- Which of the armour is missing in your life?
- How can we help each other as Jesus 'Army, seeing that an army stands together?

Prayer: Dear Jesus, help me to put on the whole armour of God every day. Fill me with truth, righteousness, faith, peace, salvation, and Your word. Make me strong and stand firm in faith in Jesus' name, Amen.

Are You Saved?

What Is Salvation And Why Is It Important?

The Angel that announced the conception and the birth of Jesus, said "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus for he shall save his people from their sins" Matt 1:21.

So Salvation means deliverance from our sin. The Bible says in Rom 3:23 "For all have sinned and have come short of the glory of God". Because of the sin of the first man on earth (Adam), we all became sinners. Sin became a part of our DNA. No one needs to teach a child to sin before he sins. You lie to cover up your mistakes because of this nature of sin. You take things that were not given to you without permission, you fight over things that are not meaningful, you are greedy or jealous because of this sinful nature. You may not know why you are doing these, but you find yourself doing them. Even when you know these things are bad, you try to stop but you can't help yourself. You find yourself doing it again and again.

This is the reason you need Salvation, because you cannot save yourself from this sinful nature, and that is the reason why Jesus was sent to the earth to save us.

Previously in the Old Testament, when the people sinned, God made a way out for them by asking them to sacrifice animals like the goat, lamb, oxen or even doves for the remission of their sins. Because without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin. You can imagine how our churches will look like if we had to sacrifice the blood of animals and sprinkle it every time we sinned. Our churches will smell like an abattoir because of the blood of animals that are killed.

So God made a way out for us by sending us his Son Jesus, who never sinned. He became the Lamb that was sacrificed for the sins of the world. He qualified to be the ultimate sacrifice for our sins because he had the nature of God, the body of a man and he willingly offered himself to take the punishment for us. Because "the wages of sin is death." He died the most gruesome death, the highest punishment for the worst sinner so that he can save the worst sinner.

What Do We Need to Do to Be Saved?

The Bible says "that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved" Rom 10:9.

You may wonder that it is that simple? Just like that? Yes, it is that simple. "For with the heart man believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." But before you believe with your heart and confess with your mouth, you need to repent from your sins. This means that you need to feel sorry about the bad things you have done before. You are not making excuses for them, but you are sorry about lying, stealing (taking things that don't belong to you without permission), being angry, fighting, being jealous, being disobedient etc. Be sorry that you have done them before and decide that with God helping you, you will not do them again. Acts 3:19 says, "Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord."

So, to be saved, you have to repent of your sins, believe that Jesus has paid the price for your sins, and confess with your mouth what you believe in your heart. When you do these, you may not feel any difference. And you will wonder whether you have become a changed person or not. If you have received Jesus into your heart and confessed him with your mouth in all sincerity, even when you don't feel like anything has changed, please still hold on to the belief that you are saved. Your status has changed even when you don't feel it. "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name" John 1:12.

Even when you find yourself doing things you have promised not to do again, it does not mean you are no longer saved. What you need to do is to continue reading the Bible daily and praying for God's help to overcome every besetting sin in your life. There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (Rom 8:1) Don't dwell on your feelings but continue to believe with your heart that Jesus has saved you and you continue to build a relationship with him through reading his words and praying daily, fellowshiping (attending fellowship) and telling others about Jesus, you will become aware of God's presence in your life.

Conclusion

You don't need to keep going out for altar calls every time you have sinned. But know you are still saved but you need the help of the Holy spirit to overcome sin in your life. When you keep reading the words of God daily, it washes you and helps you to know what is right and what is wrong. You also pray for daily help to overcome sin and temptation. Don't avoid fellowship. It is fellowship that helps you to learn new things in the Lord. Then make sure to tell others about Christ. All these will help you to continue to grow in God's will and purpose.

HOW TO HAVE AN EFFECTIVE QUIET TIME

Introduction

Have you ever struggled trying to stay in God's presence? Have you seen praying and studying God's word as a heavy burden? Have you ever wondered why it is difficult for you to wake up early and spend time alone with God? If this is you, then today's lesson is for you.

What is Quiet Time? {Mathew 14:23}

It is a dedicated daily time that is set aside for personal prayer, bible reading and meditation to grow and get closer with God. It is more than a routine, quiet time is meant to get you closer to God so that you can know Him more and also to transform your heart. It is a special time between you and God which allows you to talk to God and also for you to hear him speak with you.

Why Have a Quiet Time?

Have you ever wondered if it was actually necessary to have a quiet time especially since you regularly do family devotion, but do you know that even Jesus has a time he stays alone to talk to God. Let's read Mark 1:35. Therefore, Jesus is our perfect example. Again, if you want to grow in your fellowship with God and be transformed, you need to spend time with Him every day. Also, you need to have a quiet time to avoid temptations from the devil.

Yes, it is good to go to church, fellowship together with other Christians but spending time alone with God makes your friendship with him grow stronger and deeper and you get to know Him better.

What to do During Quiet Time

- Prayer: Quiet time should be time to pray to God through worship, praises, intercession and request. You also share things that disturbs your heart with God and so many other things.
- Bible reading: Quiet time is a two-way communication, this means that when you speak to God, he will also speak to you. Reading the bible is one of the ways God can speak to you. You can read a chapter of the bible every day. You can start reading from the book of John or you can use a devotional if you have one.
- Scripture meditation: focusing deeply on a single verse and thinking about it and how to use it in your everyday life. This brings about changes in your life.
- Journaling/Jotting: This has to do with writing down what God is saying especially through His word or whatsoever that drops in your heart during your quiet time. You can also write your prayer requests and what you are trusting God to do for you.

How To Do Quiet Time

There is no rule to doing quiet time. It depends on what works for you. If one method does not work for you, try another method until you find what works for you. However, we can follow Jesus as an example of how He talks to God when He was on earth.

- When should it be? Mark 1:35 gives us a clue 'a great while before day'. This means very early in the morning. This is the best time to do quiet time before the day's activities and when there is no noise but if this will not work for you, choose a time that will work, it could be immediately after school, before dinner, or even before bed time but make sure it's the same time every day. The most important thing is to have a special time with God consistently.
- Where should it be done? Still on Mark 1:35, the latter part says 'and departed into a solitary place' this means a quiet place, where there are no distractions. Therefore, look for such place to do your quiet time. You might need to pray and think of where you can be having it.
- Gather things to Use: You need a bible, pen, jotter, devotional {if available}
- Start with Prayer: Read Matthew 14:26, There are lots of things to tell God about. Start with thanksgiving, sing, tell God how much you love Him, tell him who He is. Another thing you must tell

God is to say you are sorry for any wrong doings (John 1:9) and lastly ask. God is always willing to help us if we will ask in prayer. In asking, you can also pray for others (intercession).

- Read the Bible: 1 Peter 2:2. If you desire to grow in your walk with God, you must read your bible. You can pick a chapter, read it two to three times. Look out for God's promises, instruction, what you need to learn and also memorize a verse. Read Psalm 119:11
- Meditate/Think: As you read the bible over and over, God can drop something in your heart, think on those things carefully
- Write: make it a habit of jotting things, or thoughts that come to your mind. Put a date on your jotter and the passage you read, then write the part of the scripture that means so much to you. Also, write down whatever you think God is saying. This helps you to remember what God says to you. Habakkuk 2:2

Conclusion (2 Corinthians 3:18)

Quiet time is more than a routine, rather it helps to develop a consistent relationship with God. This enhances our spiritual growth. If you do it as just a mere routine, it will become burdensome and boring. But, if you do it as if you need to talk to your friend every day and become intimate with him, then it becomes an everyday encounter that transforms you and makes you become like your friend (Jesus) indeed.

Emotional Intelligence

Biblical Emotional Intelligence for Seed of Purpose

Objective: To teach children that God created their emotions, how to name them biblically, how to pause and invite the Holy Spirit into big feelings, and how to respond with Christlike love toward others. Psalm 139:13-14, Proverbs 4:23

Introduction: Emotional Intelligence is the God-given ability to understand and manage our feelings. The Holy Spirit helps us to pause during big emotions and respond to others with Christlike love. Emotions are God's design, God gave us feelings just like He gave us eyes to see and ears to hear. Joy, sadness, fear, and anger are signals that tell us what is happening inside our hearts. Jesus while on earth, He displayed his emotions as well.

- I. Jesus felt sad (John 11:35)
- ii. Jesus felt angry at sin (Mark 3:5)
- iii. Jesus felt joy (Luke 10:21)

Self-Awareness

Naming the feelings you are having, as Seed of purpose you don't just act without self-awareness. Before we react, we must name what we are feeling. After that, the first step is to tell God, Lord, right now I feel angry or sad or afraid etc.

Activity: The Emotion Weather Map

Stick four weather symbols on a board: Sun (Joy), Rain (Sadness), Thunder (Anger), Fog/Wind (Fear/Anxiety).

Have 3-4 children place a sticky note on the "weather" matching how their heart feels right now. Remind them: "Just like God rules over the sky's weather, the Holy Spirit helps us navigate our heart's weather."

Self-Regulation

The Holy Spirit helps children to pause before reacting in anger, jealousy, or frustration.

James 1:19 Proverbs 16:32 Galatians 5:22-23:

Stop & Breathe Inhale God's Peace

- S— Stop or Pause immediately. Take a deep breath while praying in your head: Lord, give me peace.
- T — Think & Name, identify the Feeling you are having. Ask yourself: "What am I feeling, and why am I feeling this way?" (Proverbs 4:23)
- O — Open God's Word. Filter Through Scripture Ask: "What would Jesus want me to do right now?" (Philippians 2:5)
- P — Proceed with Love. Act in the Spirit, respond with the Fruit of the Spirit, (kindness, gentleness, and self-control) instead of striking out.

Object Lesson: A bottle of Maltina vs. A bottle of water

Materials: 1 bottle of clear water, 1 bottle of unopened Maltina drink

Demonstration:

Shake the 2 bottles. When bad things happen or someone treats us unfairly, we feel shaken up inside. If I open this bottle right now, what happens? It explodes everywhere and hurts people around us. Now shake the water bottle. Show that even when shaken, clear water stays calm when opened.

Lesson: "Self-control doesn't mean we never get shaken; it means through the Holy Spirit, we don't explode on others."

Conclusion:

1. Read the key bible verses again
2. The Heart Weather Chart

God made all of your feelings! When you feel a big emotion, circle the weather in your heart

Weather	Symbol	Emotion	What God Says About It
 Sunny Joy		Gratitude	Nehemiah 8:10
 Rainy Sadness		Grief	Psalms 34:18
 Stormy		Anger	Ephesians 4:26
 Windy Fear		Anxiety	Psalms 56:3

7 Pillars of TACEF Seed of Purpose

The Covenant Mandate of the Seed of Purpose

"A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation" (Ps.22:30)

At TACEF, we view every child as a covenant seed, making them very special. In the vision of revival, children are living arrows, shaped and sent out as agents of revival for their generation (Psalm 127:3-5).

This study guide outlines the principles and introduces the seven pillars designed to shape all our children into Christ-like agents of revival for their homes, churches, communities, and nations.

The TACEF mandate emphasises that raising children must be inclusive and holistic. God's plan for growth focuses on whole-life formation, as seen in these examples:

- "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man" (Luke 2:52).
- "And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men" (1 Samuel 2:26).
- "And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him" (Luke 2:40).

This holistic approach means a child's mind, body, spirit, character, relationships, and mission are all shaped through a well-rounded discipleship practice. This process produces boys and girls who pray, think, speak, work, love, and serve effectively. The ultimate goal is a child "thoroughly furnished unto all good works" (2 Timothy 3:17).

The Seven Pillars of the Seed of Purpose

The seven pillars of the Seed of Purpose are reflected in the seven dimensions outlined in Luke 2:52:

- Wisdom (Mental/Academic and Creative): God forms curious, diligent, and inventive minds that use knowledge for godly solutions.
- Stature (Physical/Health): Since bodies are God's temples, children learn hygiene, exercise, rest, and self-control.
- Favour with God (Spiritual and Moral): New birth, purity, obedience, and godly speech produce a life that pleases the Lord.
- Favour with Man (Social and Global): Children grow in love, etiquette, teamwork, courage, public witness, and a mission heart for all nations.

Thus the 7 Pillars of the Seed of Purpose—Spiritual, Moral, Mental/Academic, Social, Physical, Creative, and Global—are the Bible's own portrait of a well-formed child, seen in Jesus and echoed in Samuel.

TACEF 7-Pillars of the Seed of Purpose

1) SPIRITUAL PILLAR

- Knows Jesus as Lord and Saviour: Getting to know Jesus personally through a genuine salvation by recognising that Jesus loves you, died for your sins, and rose again. When you receive Him, you become God's child and begin a new life of following Him every day (Acts 16:31; John 1:12).
- Worships God in spirit and truth: Worship is more than songs; it is loving God with a clean heart and honest living. When you sing, pray, and obey, you give God true worship (John 4:24).
- Reads God's word: The Bible is God's letter that shows the best way to live. Reading a little each day helps your heart shine with His light (Psalm 119:105).
- Prays and seeks God: Prayer is talking with your Father about everything and listening for His gentle voice. Morning, noon, and night, He hears you and helps you (Luke 18:1; Psalm 55:17).
- Passionate about the vision of revival: God desires many people to know Jesus and live holy. You can be part of this by inviting friends, praying for your school, local church and shining for Christ (Matthew 6:10; Matthew 5:16).
- Passionate about things of the Spirit: Love the presence of God and be quick to obey His nudges. The Holy Ghost leads children who are willing and humble (Romans 8:14).
- Manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit: God gives gifts like wisdom, faith, and healing to help others. Ask Him to use you to encourage, pray, and bless your friends and family (1 Corinthians 12:7-11).
- Faithfulness and purity in your walk with God: Living with clean thoughts, honest actions, and loyal obedience. God is pleased when you keep your heart pure and your words true (1 Timothy 5:22; Psalm 24:3-4).
- Well-preserved life (no immorality): Your body belongs to God, so treat it with honour and keep safe boundaries. Say Yes to what is holy and No to anything that disrespects you or others (1 Corinthians 6:18-20).
- Consecrated life: Set your life apart for God first. Give Him the first minutes of your day, your best efforts, and your biggest dreams (Romans 12:1).

2) MORAL PILLAR

- Very disciplined: Discipline means doing the right thing even when no one sees. God helps you rule your choices and finish what you start (Proverbs 16:32).
- Respectful: Honour parents, teachers, elders, and friends with kind words and good manners. Respect shows that God's love is in your heart (Exodus 20:12; 1 Peter 2:17).
- Truthful in all things: Always tell the truth quickly and gently. Truth brings God's smile and keeps your heart clean (Proverbs 12:22).
- Godly character and talking: Use words that heal and help, not words that hurt. Speak life, share hope, and let kindness be heard in your voice (Ephesians 4:29).
- Not comparing self: God made you special with your very own gifts. Celebrate others without envy and thank God for how He formed you (2 Corinthians 10:12; Psalm 139:14).
- Not wasteful of time and money: Use God's gifts wisely by planning, saving, and giving. Time and money are tools to serve God and help people (Psalm 90:12; Proverbs 21:20).
- Not selfish: Think of others and share gladly. Jesus teaches us to look out for our neighbours and to be generous (Philippians 2:4; Acts 20:35).
- Very contented with what you have: Gratitude makes the heart peaceful. Trust God to supply your needs and give thanks daily (Hebrews 13:5; Philippians 4:11).

3) MENTAL / ACADEMIC PILLAR

- Self-motivated to excel: Start your tasks without being pushed and give your best. God is honoured when you work and study very well with joy and strength (Ecclesiastes 9:10).
- Passionate to be the best: Aim high for God's glory, not for pride. Let your good work be a light that points friends to Jesus (Matthew 5:14–16).
- Passionate about ideas: Be curious and ready to learn new ways to solve problems. Wise children ask questions and grow in understanding (Proverbs 14:15; Proverbs 4:7).
- Aware of society and needs: Notice where help is needed and think of kind solutions. God is pleased when you carry one another's burdens (Galatians 6:2).
- Smart in study: Listen well, ask for help, and practice daily. Little by little, God makes you stronger in knowledge (Proverbs 1:5).
- Given to godly wisdom: Choose what is right, not only what is easy. Ask God for wisdom, and He will gladly give it (James 1:5).
- Competent to get things done: Plan your work, start it, and finish it neatly. Order and diligence make your efforts shine (1 Corinthians 14:40; Proverbs 10:4).
- Inspired to manage time well: Give time first to what matters most. Redeem the time by putting God, family, school, and service in good order (Ephesians 5:16).
- Committed to clear life goals: Plan with God, write simple goals, and take small steps. Vision grows when you make it plain and walk in it (Habakkuk 2:2).
- Great and active vision: Believe that God can use you for big good things. Keep your eyes on His plan and your feet on His path (Proverbs 29:18; Psalm 37:23).
- Godly role models (academic): Learn from believers who study hard and live holy. Follow examples that lead you closer to Christ (1 Corinthians 11:1; Proverbs 13:20).

4) SOCIAL PILLAR

- Warm feeling for others: Care about how people feel and show kindness in action. A smile, a greeting, and a helping hand preach Christ's love (Ephesians 4:32).
- Respect for self and others: Keep good boundaries and handle other people's things with care. Honouring others shows you honour God (1 Peter 2:17).
- Infects others with joy and energy: Carry the joy of the Lord wherever you go. Joy lifts hearts and strengthens friends (Nehemiah 8:10).
- Positive attitude to life: Look for God's help, not only for problems. Trust that He works all things together for good (Romans 8:28).
- Self-confident, not proud: Be bold because God is with you, yet stay humble. Your strength and success come from Him (2 Corinthians 3:5; Joshua 1:9).
- Social grace, etiquette, and proper dressing: Use polite words and dress modestly and neatly. Doing things decently brings peace and honour (1 Corinthians 14:40; 1 Timothy 2:9).
- Friendly and able to work with others: Share, take turns, and listen in teams. Working together makes tasks lighter and more joyful (Ecclesiastes 4:9–10).
- High self-esteem and very secure: Know that you are wonderfully made and deeply loved. This gives courage to face each day (Psalm 139:14; Isaiah 41:10).
- Excellent public speaking skills: Speak clearly, kindly, and bravely when it is time to share. Let your words be truthful and helpful (Proverbs 31:8–9).
- Emotional stability: When upset, slow down, breathe, and pray before you speak. God helps you rule your spirit and choose peace (Proverbs 16:32; Philippians 4:6–7).

5) PHYSICAL PILLAR

- Good personal hygiene: Keep your body clean because it is God's temple. Clean hands, clean clothes, and tidy habits honour the Lord (1 Corinthians 3:16-17).
- Healthy habits: Sleep well, drink water, and move your body daily. A healthy life helps you serve God with strength (1 Timothy 4:8).
- Good posture: Sit and stand straight to care for the body God gave you. Posture helps you breathe well and stay strong (1 Corinthians 10:31).
- Balanced diet and eating habit: Eat balanced diet and avoid too much sugar. Receive every meal with gratitude and self-control (1 Timothy 4:4-5; Proverbs 25:16).
- Fit and strong body / exercise: Play, stretch, and stay active so you are ready to serve. Strength grows with steady practice (Isaiah 35:3; Proverbs 24:5).
- No excessive TV, games or passive living: Screens can wait; learning, helping, and outdoor play come first. Use your time for things that build your mind and heart (Ephesians 5:16).
- Wellbeing and reflection—rest, siesta, reflection: Rest is God's gift; pause and thank Him for the day. Quiet moments help your heart hear His guidance (Psalm 23:2-3).
- Endure hardness; no laziness: Do not quit when work is hard. Be a good soldier of Jesus and finish your task with joy (2 Timothy 2:3; Proverbs 6:6-8).

6) CREATIVE PILLAR

- Godly imaginations: Think thoughts that please God and help people. Let your ideas be pure, kind, and bright (Philippians 4:8).

- Inventor of good things: Create songs, crafts, or tools that do good. Use your hands to bless others for Jesus' sake (Exodus 35:31-35).
- Spontaneous ingenuity: Use what you have wisely and think quickly with care. God can teach your hands skill for every season (Psalm 18:34).

- Life skill in music, sport, writing, and speech: Practice your talents faithfully and offer them to God. Skill grows when you keep showing up (Psalm 33:3).
- Refined talent and skills: Allow mentors to correct you and keep improving. Iron sharpens iron, and you will shine brighter (Proverbs 27:17).

7) GLOBAL PILLAR

- Higher sense of mission to the world: God can use you anywhere He sends you. Pray for nations and be ready to go where He leads. Be interested in how many people across the world can know Jesus as their Lord and Saviour (Mark 16:15).
- Salt of the earth: Live like Jesus so places become better because you are there. Your kindness and truth keep the world from spoiling (Matthew 5:13).
- World's change agents: God uses even children to bring good change. Like Samuel, listen for God and obey His voice (1 Samuel 3:10).
- City set on a hill: Do not hide your light; let others see Jesus in you. Your bright life points people to God (Matthew 5:14-16).

- Passion for community: Care about your street, school, and church family. Love your neighbour as yourself in simple daily ways (Matthew 22:39).
- Making a difference where you are: Begin right where you live with small faithful acts. God notices the little things and grows them into more (Luke 16:10).
- Aspiration for global impact: Dream with God about helping many people in many places. Learn about other countries and pray for them by name (Psalm 2:8).
- Solution to the world's problems: With God's wisdom you can help feed, heal, teach, and build. Like Joseph, God can use you to bless nations (Genesis 41:38-40).

God Is Still Building You

– Ephesians 2:10 (NKJV)

Opening Question:

- 1. Have you ever been given a big responsibility at school or at home? What did you have to do to prepare for it?
- 2. Think of someone you look up to. What do you think made them good at what they do?

- ☐ Exodus 24:13;
- ☐ Exodus 33:11;
- ☐ Ephesians 2:10;
- ☐ Ephesians 4:11-13

Today's Lesson

Today I want to introduce you to someone really special in the Bible...

His name is Joshua.

Joshua led God's people to the Promised Land, which was a special land God prepared for the Israelites. He won big battles there. But before all of that, God had to train him first to be a soldier of the Lord in the Lord's Super Army. And that's what we're learning about today!

#1. Obedience Comes First

The first time we see Joshua, Moses gave him a job. Go fight the enemy.

Joshua didn't argue. He didn't ask questions. He just obeyed. That's so cool, right? In the same way, God doesn't look for the most talented person. He looks for the most obedient one. It's like when your teacher is choosing a group leader and she picks the student who follows rules and gets work done on time. Not the loudest one. She chooses the one she can trust.

That was Joshua. And God wants the same heart in you.

#2. You Need Time With God

Joshua didn't only learn by fighting. He also spent time with God.

When Moses went up the mountain to meet God, Joshua went up the mountain too. And even after Moses came back down, Joshua stayed. He didn't rush away. Being busy for God is good. But spending time with God is even better. You need both!

This week, find a quiet moment. No phone. No noise. Just you and God.

#3. God Is Still Shaping You

The Bible says we are God's workmanship. That means God is still working on you right now. Isn't that amazing?

Every hard moment is part of the training. Nothing is wasted. Joshua became a great leader because he stayed obedient and stayed close to God.

You can do the same. Stay obedient. Stay close to God. Let Him shape you into the person He made you to be.

Discussion Question:

1. Is there an instruction you find hard to follow? What can you do about it?
2. What is one thing you can do this week to spend more quiet time with God?

Today's Lesson

Let's start with an awesome story about Joshua and his friend Caleb!

One day, Moses chose twelve men to check out the Promised Land. He wanted to know if the land is good? Are the people strong? They came back with big news. The land was incredible! It has huge fruits. Flowing rivers. Everything they could ever need.

But there was a big problem. The people living there were giants!

Ten spies were terrified. They said, "We can't fight them! We looked like tiny grasshoppers next to them!" So the crowd panicked. Some even wanted to go back to Egypt.

But Joshua and Caleb stood up. They said, "The land is amazing! God is with us. We can do this!"

The crowd got so angry they wanted to throw stones at them. But Joshua and Caleb didn't back down. How brave is that?

#1. See Things the Way God Sees Them

All twelve spies saw the same giants. But Joshua and Caleb focused on God.

When you face something scary, don't focus on the problem. Look at God. He is bigger than any giant you will ever face!

#2. Be Brave Enough to Stand Alone

Joshua and Caleb stood for the truth even when the whole crowd disagreed.

There will be moments when doing the right thing makes you unpopular. Maybe your friends want you to laugh at someone being bullied.

Standing for what's right isn't always easy. But God sees it. And God honours it.

#3. Ask God for Wisdom

The Bible says Joshua was full of the spirit of wisdom. He wasn't just brave, he was wise too! Courage without wisdom can cause problems. So ask God to make you both bold and wise.

Before you act, pause. Ask God, "Is this the right thing to do?" That's wisdom. And God loves to give it when we ask!

Discussion Question:

1. What is one "giant" or scary problem you have in your life right now? How can you trust God with it?
2. Has there ever been a time when you did the right thing even though your friends didn't? How did it feel?

Activity Time

Ages 3-5

Today's Lesson

This week's lesson begins with a sad event.

Moses, the greatest leader Israel had ever known, was dead. Joshua was now chosen by God to replace him. So the Lord told Joshua, "Moses my servant is dead. Now cross the Jordan River and lead my people into the Promised Land."

Can you imagine how Joshua felt?

Maybe he felt scared. Or really nervous. Perhaps he was even wondering, "Why me?" But God knows what's going on inside Joshua's mind so He made him a big promise. God told Joshua, "I will be with you. I will never leave you. No one will be able to stop you. Just be strong and courageous!"

The Lord also gave Joshua one very important instruction. He told him, "Keep reading the Word of God every single day. Think about it. Obey it. And you will succeed wherever you go."

Here's what we can learn from that story today:

#1. Wait for God's Instructions

Joshua didn't just wake up one day and decide to lead Israel. God spoke to him first and He gave him a clear assignment.

That's how it works with us too. Before you do something big for God, ask Him first. Pray. Read your Bible. Don't just take action because you feel excited or because your friends are doing it.

God has a special plan for your life. But you need to wait for His instructions.

#2. Get Up and Keep Going

Joshua could have stayed sad about Moses. He could have told God, "I'm not ready. I can't do this without Moses." But God told him to get up and move forward.

Maybe something sad or difficult has happened in your life. Maybe you failed at something. Maybe someone let you down.

God is saying the same thing to you today. Get up. Keep going. His plans for you are still good!

#3. Be Strong in God, Not in Yourself

God told Joshua three times, "Be strong and courageous!" But this strength didn't come from Joshua. It came from God. God also said, "I will be with you wherever you go." You don't have to be the smartest or the strongest. You just need God with you. And the good news is, He always is.

Discussion Question:

1. God told Joshua to read and think about His Word every day. What is one way you can spend more time reading the Bible this week?
2. Is there something in your life right now that God might be telling you to "get up and keep going" with? What is it?

Week 4

Use What God Gave You

21 – 26 September 2026

Memory Verse

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.”

– Joshua 1:8 (NKJV)

Opening Question:

1. Have you ever received a gift but didn't use it? What happened to it?
2. Is there someone you know – a classmate, a neighbour, a friend – who still doesn't know Jesus? Do you want to share Jesus with them?

Read God's Word with Me!

Joshua 1:3-9;

☐

Ephesians 1:3, 11

Today's Lesson

Imagine your parents bought you a gift and gave it to you. That's so cool, right? Now imagine what they would feel if you never opened it and used it...

As we continue the story of Joshua, we learn that God also gave Joshua and the whole nation of Israel a very important gift. God said, "Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, I have already given it to you."

It means God has given them the entire Promised Land. But even if it's already theirs, Israel still had to get up, move their feet, and take it.

God has given them a gift. But they still need to receive it.

#1. God Will Bless You But You Still Have to Move

God made a promise. But Joshua still had to obey.

That's how it works with us too. God has great plans for your life. But you still have to take steps of obedience. Maybe God is asking you to be kinder to someone at school. Maybe He wants you to invite a friend to church. Maybe He's asking you to pray more.

The plan is already there. But you still have to move your feet.

#2. Join God's Saving Plan

Here's something amazing. Every person you see – your classmates, your neighbours, your family – they were all made by God and they belong to God. But because of sin, they were separate from God. Still, God loves them deeply. And He wants them to know Him.

That means when you share the good news of Jesus with someone, you're not doing something small. You're helping them get back to God and start a new relationship with Him!

By doing so, you became part of God's saving plan to reach the people around you!

#3. Let God's Word Guide You

God told Joshua, "Keep my Word in your mouth. Think about it day and night. Then you will succeed."

The Bible is not just a book to read at church. It's your guide for every single day. When you read it, think about it, and obey it, God promises that things will go well for you. So, open your Bible today. Let God speak to you through it.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one step of obedience God is asking you to take this week?
2. Think of one person around you who doesn't know Jesus yet. What is one small thing you can do to show them God's love?

Bible Puzzle

Objective:

Help children learn that God's plan unfolds as we trust Him and obey His Word.

Materials Needed:

- Age-appropriate printed puzzles

Instructions for the Teacher:

Review the Bible lesson and explain that every puzzle piece reminds us to trust God's plan. Give each child or team one puzzle. On "Go!", have them complete the puzzle. Check each finished puzzle, recognise the winners, and end by connecting the activity to the lesson.

See the worksheet after the activity section.

- ☐ Ephesians 2:11-19

Today's Lesson

Today we meet another cool character from the Bible. Her name was Rahab.

Rahab lived in a city called Jericho. She had made a lot of wrong choices. And everyone knew it. But one day, two spies from Israel came to her house. They needed a place to hide. Rahab could have turned them away. But she kept them safe.

Then she said something surprising to them. She said, "I know that the LORD your God is God in heaven and on earth." How did she know? She had heard stories about God. How He parted the Red Sea. How He helped Israel win. Those stories changed her heart.

She also asked the spies for one thing. "Please save me and my family when you take this city." The spies said yes. They told her, "Hang a red cord in your window. Gather your family inside. You will be safe." Rahab did exactly that. And her whole family was saved. Isn't that amazing?

#1. God Saves People in Unlikely Places

Rahab was the last person most people would expect God to save. But God saw her heart. It means nobody is out of reach of God's grace and mercy – that means God is kind to us and forgives us even when we don't deserve it. God is kind even to your classmate who is always in trouble or your neighbour who seems hard to reach. God can forgive even the person you think will never change.

#2. Stories About God Can Change Someone's Life

Rahab believed because she heard stories about God. Those stories gave her faith.

Your personal stories of God matter too. When you share what God has done in your life, it could open someone else's heart to Him. Don't be afraid to share your story.

#3. The Red Cord Points to Jesus

That scarlet cord in Rahab's window saved her whole family.

It's a picture of Jesus. His blood saves us, just like that red cord saved Rahab and the people she loved.

No matter what someone has done, the blood of Jesus is powerful enough to save them. That's the good news we carry.

Discussion Question:

1. Rahab believed in God because of stories she heard. Is there a story about what God has done in your life that you can share with someone this week?
2. Think of someone you know who seems far from God. How can you show them God's love this week?

Ephesians 2:18-22

Today's Lesson

Today let's continue the story of Joshua and the people of Israel. God had promised them a land of their own. After many years of waiting, they were finally close. But there was one big problem...

The Jordan River.

It was wide and deep. It was also overflowing its banks. And there were no bridges, boats, and any easy way across. But God had an awesome plan!

Joshua told the people two things. First, get yourselves ready because tomorrow God is going to do something amazing. Second, watch for the Ark of the Covenant. That was a special box that reminded the people of God's promises to them. And this special box was carried by the priests – who were men chosen by God to serve Him. When the priests moved carrying the Ark, the people had to follow.

The priests walked toward the river. The moment their feet touched the water, the river stopped. The water piled up on one side. And the people walked across on dry ground. Can you imagine that? Just like that, God made a way!

#1. Don't Rush. Follow God First.

Israel didn't run across just because the land was close. They waited and followed God first. Before you make a big decision, don't rush. Maybe your friends are trying something new and you feel like you should too. Stop and pray first. It's better to move slowly with God than to rush without Him.

#2. Get Ready Before You Go

Before the miracle, Joshua told the people to get their hearts ready. We should do the same. For example, getting ready means more than studying for exams. It means spending time with God too. Ask Him to help you. Then watch what He does!

#3. God Makes a Way When You Obey

The river didn't stop while the priests stood far away. It stopped when their feet touched the water. They had to move first. Then God moved. Sometimes God waits for us to take one small step of faith. And when we do, He opens the way. Is there something God is asking you to do? Take that first step. Trust Him. He will make a way.

Discussion Question:

1. Joshua told the people to get their hearts ready because God was going to do something amazing. What is one thing you can do this week to get your heart ready for God?
2. The priests had to put their feet in the water before the river stopped. What is one small thing God might be asking you to do right now that you haven't done yet?

Today's Lesson

Last week we learned how God stopped the Jordan River so Joshua and all the Israelites could walk across on dry ground.

It was an awesome miracle. And God did not want the people to forget what happened. So He gave Joshua a special job. God told Joshua, "Pick twelve men. Each man must carry one large stone from the middle of the river. Then stack all the stones together at your camp."

Now, you might be thinking, "Why did God want them to collect and stack stones from the river?"

Well, according to the Bible, God told them to do it so that one day, when the Israelite kids saw the stones and they asked, "What are those stones for?" Those who witnessed it would answer, "God stopped the river for us. He made a way when there was no way." It means the stones were there to help them remember.

And to help the next generation of Israelites know what God did.

#1. Don't Forget What God Has Done

It is easy to forget things. We forget the times God helped us. We forget the prayers He answered. But God does not want us to forget. So when God does something good in your life, write it down. Tell someone about it. Keep it close to your heart.

#2. Tell Others What God Has Done

The stones were not just for the people who crossed the river. They were for their children too. Maybe God answered a prayer for you recently. Don't keep it to yourself! Share it with a friend or a classmate. You never know, your story might be the very thing that helps them believe God can help them too.

#3. God Wants Everyone to Know Him

Joshua said the miracle happened so all people on earth would know that God is strong and mighty. God's great works are not just for us to enjoy. They are there to show the world who He is. When you share what God has done, you help others know Him too.

Discussion Question:

1. Think of one thing God has done for you or your family. How can you share that story with someone this week?
2. The stones helped children ask questions about God. Who is one person you can tell about God this week?

Today's Lesson

Let's continue with the story of Joshua and the Israelites in the Promised Land. Israel had just crossed the Jordan River.

God made a way for them and they walked across dry ground. Now they were inside the Promised Land. The enemy kings heard what God did and they were very scared.

But before Israel could fight, God told Joshua to stop. He told Joshua, "Your people need to be circumcised first." Circumcision was a mark that showed a person belonged to God at that time which is no longer done today because the mark that we belong to God is now in our hearts when we accepted Jesus as our Lord and Saviour. Many young people in the camp had never gotten this mark. So Joshua obeyed and it was done. It was painful. The people had to rest until they were better.

Then God said something beautiful. He said, "Today I have rolled away your shame. You have a fresh start." That's so amazing, right? Now they were ready to move!

#1. Let Go of the Old Life

Israel used to be slaves in Egypt. They left long ago. But God said their shame from that old life still needed to go.

It is the same with us. When we give our lives to Jesus, we become new. But we can still hold on to bad habits. Maybe before you knew Jesus better, you used to say mean things to make your friends laugh. You knew it was wrong but it felt normal.

Now that you follow Jesus, God wants you to stop. You are now a new person. So we should act like it.

#2. Belong to God for Real

Some people in the camp were near God's people but had never gotten the mark.

It is not enough to just go to church. God wants your whole heart. Maybe you go to church every Sunday. You sing the songs and listen to the lesson. But at home or at school you lie, you cheat, and you ignore God. That means God has your Sundays but not your whole life. He wants all of you!

Take a moment to reflect and ask yourself, "Do I really belong to God deep inside?"

#3. A Clean Heart Wins Battles

God stopped Israel to deal with their hearts before any battle. God cares more about who we are on the inside than what we do on the outside.

A clean heart makes your prayers strong. It helps you make good choices. It helps you do the right thing when no one is watching. Before you do big things for God, let Him clean your heart first.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one bad habit you want to stop doing? What can you do this week to start changing it?
2. What is one thing you can do to spend more time with God this week?

Jesus Makes Me New

Objective:

Help children remember that Jesus makes us new.

Materials Needed

- Printed "Jesus Makes Me New" colouring page
- Crayons, coloured pencils, or markers

Teacher Preparation

Print one colouring page for each child.

Instruction for the Teacher

1. Give each child a colouring page.
2. Explain that Jesus makes us new and helps us live His way.
3. Invite the children to personalise the picture by drawing their own face, hair, clothing, or other details.
4. Let them colour while reminding them to follow Jesus every day.
5. Read Ephesians 4:24 together and close with a short prayer.

Today's Lesson

We are still following the story of Joshua and the people of Israel.

They had crossed the Jordan River. They had set up the memorial stones. God had rolled away their shame at Gilgal. Now they were ready to fight their first big battle.

The city of Jericho was right in front of them. It had huge walls and looked very hard to defeat. But before the battle, something amazing happened. Joshua was near Jericho when he saw a man standing in front of him with a sword. Joshua asked the man, "Are you on our side or the enemy's side?"

The man said, "Neither. I am the Captain of the Lord's army." Joshua did not argue. He fell to the ground and worshiped. Then he asked, "What does my Lord want to tell me?" The Captain said, "Take off your shoes. The ground you are standing on is holy." Holy means that place belongs completely to God, so it's different and special. Joshua obeyed right away.

#1. Jesus Is the Real Commander

This tells us something important. Jesus is the one in charge – not us. Maybe you are the leader of your group at school. Or maybe you are the oldest at home. It can be easy to think you are the boss. But even leaders need to follow Jesus. He is the real Commander. Our job is to listen to Him and obey.

#2. Ask God First Before You Act

After Joshua found out who the Captain was, he stopped and asked, "What does my Lord want to tell me?" He didn't rush into battle. He asked for instructions first.

We should do the same. Before you make a big decision – like choosing who to be friends with or what to do when someone is trying to fight you at school – stop and ask God. Say, "Lord, what do you want me to do?"

God always has the best answer.

#3. Come to God with a Humble Heart

The Captain told Joshua to take off his shoes because the ground was holy. Taking off your shoes was a sign of respect. It meant, "I know I am before someone much greater than me." When we come to God, we should come the same way. Not with pride. Not with a heart full of wrong things. Before you pray today, say sorry for anything wrong.

Then come to God with a clean and humble heart. That's how He wants us to come.

Discussion Question:

1. Joshua stopped and asked God for instructions before the battle. What is one decision you need to ask God about this week?
2. The Captain told Joshua to take off his shoes as a sign of respect. What is one way you can show more respect to God in your daily life?

Today's Lesson

Last week we learned that Jesus is the real Commander. Joshua met Him before the battle and fell down to worship. Now it was time to fight.

Jericho was right in front of Israel. It had huge thick walls. The gates were locked. No one could go in. No one could come out. It looked impossible! But God gave Joshua a very strange battle plan.

He said to Joshua, "March around the city once a day for six days. Don't say a word. Just march. On the seventh day, march around seven times. Then when the priests blow the trumpets – SHOUT!"

They didn't have weapons. They didn't have ladders. They didn't need to attack right away. Just march and shout at the right time. It must have looked really odd to everyone watching. But Israel obeyed. Every single day. And on the seventh day, when they shouted, the walls came down hard!

Just like God said.

#1. Do It God's Way

God's plan for Jericho didn't make sense to most people. But it worked because it came from God. Sometimes God asks us to do things that feel strange. Maybe He's asking you to say sorry to someone first, even when it wasn't your fault. That doesn't feel fair. But if God says to do it, trust Him and do it.

God's way always works. Even when it doesn't make sense at first.

#2. Keep Going Even When Nothing Is Happening

Israel marched for six whole days. And the wall didn't move at all. That takes a lot of patience. Maybe you've been praying for something for a long time and nothing seems to change. Don't stop. Keep praying. Keep obeying. God is working even when you can't see it.

The wall fell on the seventh day, not the first. Keep going!

#3. Some Battles Are Too Big for Us

Israel didn't knock down that wall. God did. Some problems are just too big for us to fix on our own. Maybe someone in your family needs to know Jesus. Maybe there's a hard situation at home that only God can change.

That's okay. Those are battles for God. Pray about them. Trust Him. He will do what only He can do.

Discussion Question:

1. Israel kept marching for six days even when nothing happened. What is something you need to keep doing even when you don't see results yet?
2. What is one problem in your life that feels too big for you? How can you give it to God this week?

Activity Time

Ages 3-9

Listen, March, and Shout!

Objective:

Help children learn to trust God by listening and obeying His instructions.

Materials Needed:

- Masking tape or paper footprints
- Toy trumpet (optional)
- Simple "Wall of Jericho" (e.g., stacked cardboard boxes, paper cups, or foam blocks)

Teacher Preparation:

Create a simple marching path and build a small Wall of Jericho using safe materials that can be easily knocked down.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Lead the children as they march along the path. Give simple commands: "March," "Stop," "Be Quiet," and "Keep Marching."
2. Ask, "Is it time to shout?" Let the children answer, "Not yet!"
3. On the final march, pretend to blow the trumpet and say, "Now!" Invite the children to shout together, then gently knock down the Wall of Jericho.
4. Remind the children that Joshua trusted and obeyed God, then say together, "I can trust and obey God!"

Activity Time

Ages 10-12

Walls of Jericho Reflection

Objective:

Help students identify obstacles they face and learn to trust God with battles they cannot overcome on their own.

Materials Needed:

- Brick-shaped paper pieces
- Pens
- Tape or sticky tack

Teacher Preparation:

Create a wall on a board using the paper "bricks."

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Review the story of Jericho and explain that God brought the walls down.
2. Give each student a paper brick.
3. Ask them to write one "wall" they face (fear, peer pressure, anger, worry, etc.).
4. Place the bricks together to build a wall.
5. Pray together, reminding students that God is bigger than every wall.

Monday, 16 November 2026:

Is there something God is asking you to do that feels strange or hard? Trust Him and do it anyway. His way always works.

Tuesday, 17 November 2026:

Don't try to solve everything your own way.
Ask God today to show you His plan for what you're going through.

Wednesday, 18 November 2026:

Israel kept marching even when the wall didn't move.
What is one thing you need to keep doing today even though nothing has changed yet?

Thursday, 19 November 2026:

Saying sorry when it's hard is one way to do things God's way.
Is there someone you need to say sorry to today?

Friday, 20 November 2026:

Some battles are too big for you to fight alone.
Tell God about one big problem today and ask Him to fight it for you.

Saturday, 21 November 2026:

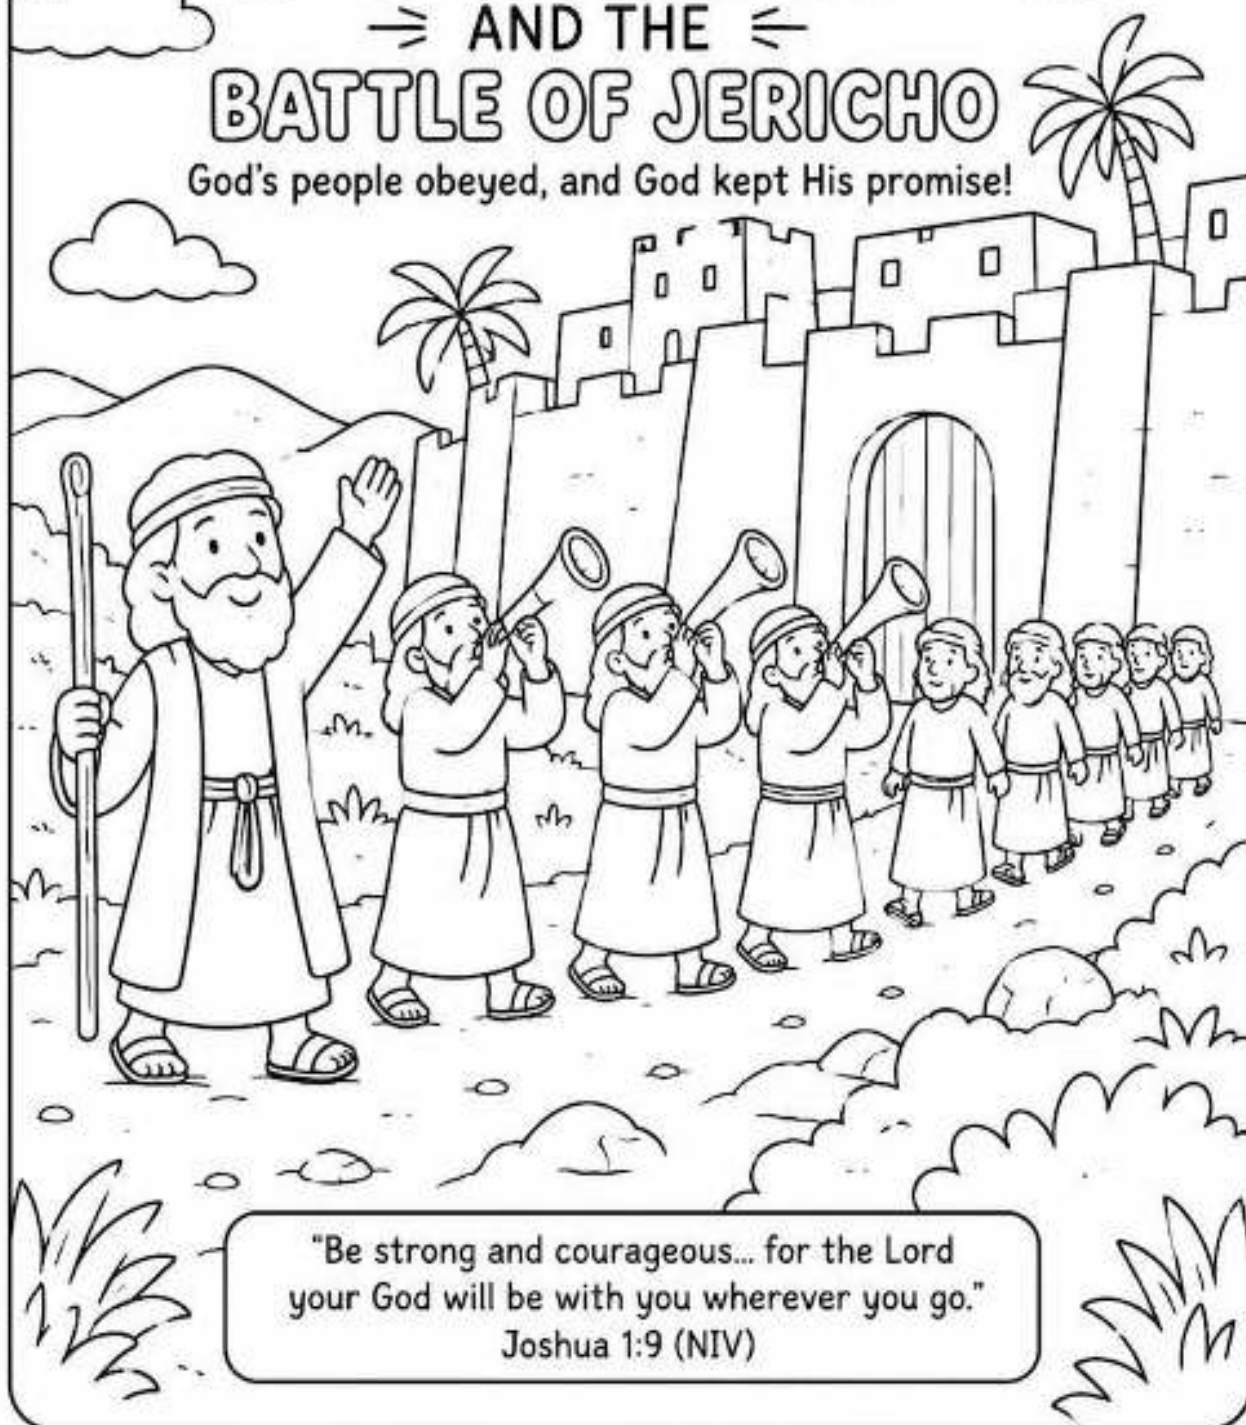

God made the walls of Jericho fall flat. Nothing is impossible for Him. Trust Him today with something that looks impossible to you.

Today's Lesson

Last week, we talked about how Joshua and the Israelites defeated Jericho by following God's battle strategy.

After Jericho fell, Israel felt strong and ready. The next city they needed to conquer was called Ai and compared to Jericho, Ai looked small and easy. The spies even told Joshua, "Don't send everyone. Just a few soldiers will do." So Joshua sent about three thousand men. But what happened in Jericho, they lost the battle in Ai. Some people died. The rest ran away in fear.

Joshua fell down before God and asked, "Why did we lose?" God told him, "Someone in the camp took something they were not allowed to take. That is why you lost." God pointed out who it was. The man's name was Achan.

And because of that, one person's secret sin caused the whole army to lose the battle.

#1. God Always Sees

Achan hid everything under his tent. He thought no one would find out.

But God saw everything.

Maybe you did something wrong and thought no one would know. Like copying your classmate's homework and telling your teacher it was your own work. But God always sees what we do – even the things we try to hide. And sin has a way of coming out. When it does, it can hurt us and the people around us.

#2. Wrong Desires Lead to Wrong Actions

Achan saw the coat and the gold. He wanted them even though he knew God said not to take them. But still he took them.

And that's how it usually works. First, we want something we're not supposed to have. Then we do the wrong thing to get it. Maybe you see your friend's toy and you want it so badly that you think about taking it. Ask God to help you be content with what you have. That keeps you out of a lot of trouble.

#3. Say Sorry and Tell the Truth

When Joshua asked Achan to be honest, he finally told the truth. Saying sorry is hard. But it's always the right thing to do. If you did something wrong, tell God about it. Say sorry. And if you hurt someone, say sorry to them too. God is kind. He forgives. And telling the truth is always the first step to making things right.

Discussion Question:

1. Achan thought he could hide his sin, but God saw everything. Is there something wrong you've been hiding? What can you do about it today?
2. Achan wanted things he wasn't supposed to have. What can you do when you feel like wanting something that isn't yours?

My Honest Hands

Objective:

Help children remember to use their hands to do what is right.

Materials Needed:

- Blank sheet of paper
- Crayons or markers

Teacher Preparation:

Provide one worksheet or blank sheet of paper for each child.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Help each child place one hand on the paper and trace around it. Younger children may need assistance.
2. Invite the children to colour and decorate their own hand outline.
3. Explain that God wants us to use our hands to help others, share, obey, and tell the truth—not to take things that belong to someone else.
4. Close by thanking God for helping us use our hands to do what is right.

Hidden Treasure Challenge

Objective:

Help children understand that nothing can be hidden from God and encourage them to choose honesty.

Materials Needed:

- Small object (coin, key, toy, or eraser)
- Small prize (optional)

Teacher Preparation:

Hide the object in the classroom before the activity begins.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Tell the children a hidden object is somewhere in the room. The first child to find it receives a small prize.
2. Let the children search until the object is found.
3. Explain that Achan hid the stolen items, but God knew where they were because nothing is hidden from Him.
4. Read Mark 4:22 and remind the children to tell the truth, confess their sins, and choose what is right.

Activity Time

Ages 10-12

What Would You Do?

Objective:

Help children apply Achan's story by choosing honesty, contentment, and obedience in everyday situations.

Materials Needed:

- Prepared scenario cards

Teacher Preparation:

Prepare simple, age-appropriate scenario cards about honesty, temptation, peer pressure, and telling the truth.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Divide the class into small groups and give each group a scenario card.
2. Have the groups discuss what they would do and why.
3. Invite each group to share their answer with the class.
4. Connect each response to Achan's story, reminding the children that wrong desires can lead to sin, but God wants us to be honest, confess our sins, and choose what is right.

Today's Lesson

Last week we learned about Achan. He took something he wasn't supposed to. And because of his sin, Israel lost a battle against Ai. But the story didn't end there.

After the sin was dealt with, God spoke to Joshua. He said, "Do not be afraid. Get up and go back to Ai. I have already given it to you." God gave them another chance! This time, God gave Joshua a brand new plan. Joshua sent soldiers to hide behind the city. Then he led another group toward the gate. When the men of Ai came out, Joshua's soldiers pretended to run away. The men of Ai chased them and left their city wide open.

The hidden soldiers ran in and took over. Israel won! After the victory, Joshua built an altar and read God's Word to all the people.

#1. God Gives You Another Chance

Israel failed the first time. But God said, "Get up. Try again."

God is like that with us too. When we make a mistake and say sorry, He doesn't give up on us. Maybe you failed a test or said something hurtful. Don't give up. Say sorry and try again. God believes in second chances!

#2. Ask God for a Fresh Plan

God didn't tell Joshua to use the same plan from Jericho. He gave him a new one.

That's important. Just because something worked before doesn't mean it will work the same way again. Before you try to fix a problem, ask God what to do. Don't just copy what someone else did. Ask Him, "What do You want me to do this time?"

He always has the best answer.

#3. After Victory, Go Back to God's Word

After Israel won, Joshua didn't just celebrate and move on. He built an altar, which was a special place where people stopped to thank God and worship Him. Then he also read God's Word to everyone – men, women, and children. That's a great habit. After something good happens, go back to God. Thank Him. Read the Bible. Stay close to Him.

Good things happen when we keep God at the centre. So seek Him not just when things are hard, but when

Today's Lesson

Last week, we learned that God brought another victory to Israel when they defeated the City of Ai.

So what did Joshua do next? He didn't rush to the next battle. He stopped and did something very important. He built an altar to God, which was a special place where people stopped to thank God and worship Him!

Then he wrote God's commands on large stones. And he called everyone together – men, women, children, leaders, and strangers – and read every single word of God's law out loud. He read every word of God's laws. And he left nothing out. That tells us something very important.

Winning battles wasn't really the end goal. What's most important for Joshua and the Israelites to go back to God and His Word.

#1. After a Win, Go Back to God

Would you agree that it's so easy to forget God when things are going well?

Maybe you prayed for something, God answered, and then you got so busy and happy that you forgot to say thank you – or even pray again.

Joshua shows us a better way. After every win, go back to God. Thank Him. Spend time with Him. Every good thing in your life comes from God. So don't forget the One who gave it to you.

#2. God's Word Is for Everyone

Joshua read the Word to everyone. Not just leaders. Not just adults. The children were there too. God's Word is for you. It's not just for your pastor or your teacher.

It's for you right now, at your age, in your school, in your home.

So read the Bible. Always think about what God is saying to you. The Bible is not just a church book. Use it as your guide every single day.

#3. The Bible Is Your Weapon

The Bible says the Word of God is like a sword. A sword is used to fight. The Bible helps you fight too. Of course, not against people, but against fear, wrong thoughts, and temptation.

For example, when you feel scared, find a Bible verse that says God is with you. Say it out loud. That's using the Word like a sword.

When you feel like doing something wrong, remember what the Bible says. That's how the Word of God keeps you safe and strong.

Discussion Question:

1. Joshua went back to God's Word right after winning a battle. What is one thing you can do this week to spend more time reading the Bible?
2. What is one thing you feel scared or worried about? What Bible verse can help you fight that fear?

not as fools but as wise.”

– Ephesians 5:15 (NKJV)

Today's Lesson

Today let's continue the story of Joshua and the Israelites in the Promised Land.

So far, Israel won two battles already. Jericho fell. Ai was taken. Things were going really well. But then something tricky happened.

A group of people called the Gibeonites were afraid of Israel. So instead of fighting, they made a plan to trick them. They put on old torn clothes. They carried old worn shoes. They brought dry old bread. Then they went to Joshua and said, "We came from a very far country. Please make peace with us."

Joshua looked at their old bread and worn clothes. It all seemed to match their story. So he agreed. But he made one big mistake. He did not ask God first. Three days later, the truth came out. The Gibeonites were not from far away. They lived right next door! It was all a trick. And Israel fell for it because they did not pray first.

#1. Things Are Not Always What They Look Like

The Gibeonites looked like tired travellers. But they were not. It was all fake. Sometimes things can look one way but be something different.

Maybe someone at school is very nice to you. But later you find out they only wanted to copy your work. That is why we cannot just trust what things look like. We need to ask God to help us see the truth.

#2. Ask God Before You Decide

Israel's big mistake was not asking God first. They used their own eyes and got it wrong.

Before you make a big choice, like who to be close friends with or whether to follow a crowd, ask God first. Say, "Father God, is this a good idea? Is this right for me?" God always knows the truth. And He will help you if you ask.

#3. Slow Down and Think Carefully

The Bible tells us to walk carefully.

We should not act like a fool, but like someone who is wise. That means slowing down before you decide. Not going along with something just because it looks good.

Ask questions. Always pray. Talk to someone you trust like a parent or a teacher. Wise people don't rush. They think. They pray. They ask God to guide them!

Discussion Question:

1. Is there a big decision you need to make soon? How can you ask God to help you with it?
2. What do you do when something feels wrong but you're not sure? Who do you talk to?

Activity Time Ages 3-5

Freeze, Pray & Choose!

Objective:

Teach children to stop, pray, and ask God before making a choice.

Materials Needed:

- Music (optional)

Teacher Preparation:

Prepare a safe, open space for movement.

Instructions for the Teacher:

1. Let the children walk, hop, or dance around the room.
2. When the teacher says, "Freeze!", everyone stops and stays still.
3. Hold up two simple choices (e.g., two coloured cards or two objects).
4. Before choosing, have the children fold their hands and say, "God, help me choose wisely."
5. Repeat with different choices.

Wise Path Challenge

Objective:

Help children practice stopping, praying, and making wise choices.

Materials Needed:

- Cones, chairs, hoops, or tape
- "STOP & PRAY" signs
- Direction cards (Left/Right)

Teacher Preparation:

Set up an obstacle course with 2–3 decision points, each offering two paths that lead to the finish.

Instructions for the Teacher:

1. Explain that the course represents the choices we make every day.
2. Let children stop at each "STOP & PRAY" sign, ask God for guidance, and choose a path.
3. Encourage them to think carefully before moving forward.
4. After the activity, discuss how praying helped them make wise choices.
5. Connect the lesson to Joshua's mistake of not asking God first.

God Fights for You!

28 December 2026 – 2 January 2027

Memory Verse

“For the Lord your God is He who fights for you.”
– Joshua 23:10 (NKJV)

Opening Question:

1. If you had a superpower, what would it be?
2. What do you usually do when you need help with something?

Read God's Word with Me!

- ☐ Joshua 10:1-15;
- ☐ Ephesians 6:10-13

Today's Lesson

Israel had been winning many battles. And the kings of the land were getting very scared.

So, five kings joined together to attack Gibeon, the city that had made peace with Israel. The people of Gibeon sent Joshua a message. "Come fast! All the kings are coming after us!" Joshua marched through the whole night to help and before the battle, God said, "Do not be afraid. I have already given these enemies to you."

And God kept His word! He threw the enemies into panic. He sent big hailstones from the sky. More enemies fell from the hailstones than from Israel's swords. Then Joshua asked God to make the sun stand still. And it did! The sun stopped for almost a whole day.

The Lord indeed fought for Israel!

#1. Don't Be Afraid When Things Get Hard

Five kings came against Israel at the same time. That's a lot of trouble all at once. But God said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid."

Maybe you have many problems at the same time right now. Trouble at school and trouble at home. It can feel like too much. But God says the same thing to you today. "Don't be scared. I am here with you."

#2. God Fights for You

Israel won because God fought for them. He sent hailstones from the sky. He made the enemies panic. He even stopped the sun. It's like the Bible is telling you that you don't have to fight your battles alone.

When you pray and trust God, He helps you in ways you never expected. Maybe you have a problem that feels too big for you right now... Tell God about it and He will fight for you!

#3. With God You Can Never Lose

Five kings against Israel sounds very unfair. But with God on their side, Israel could not lose. It doesn't matter how big your problem is. If God is with you, you are never without help. One person with God is stronger than any problem without Him. So, stay close to God. Trust Him. He is your strength.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one problem you are facing right now that feels too big for you? How can you ask God to help you with it this week?
2. Who is someone you can ask for help when things get really hard?

Activity Time all ages

Week 19

Don't Leave the Door Open

4 – 9 January 2027

Memory Verse

“Neither give place to the devil.”

– Ephesians 4:27 (NKJV)

Opening Question:

1. What do you usually do after finishing a big school project or assignment?
2. What is your favourite thing to do after school?

Read God's Word with Me!

☐ Joshua 10:16-43;

☐ Ephesians 4:27;

☐ Ephesians 5:11

Today's Lesson

Last week, we talked about how the Israelites defeated five kings because God fought for Israel. After that win, the five kings ran away and hid in a dark cave. Joshua found out.

But instead of stopping, he told his men to roll big stones over the cave. Then he said, "Don't stop! Keep going after the rest of the enemies!"

When the battle was done, Joshua came back. He brought the kings out and dealt with them. Not one enemy was left to cause trouble.

#1. Don't Ignore Your Problems

The five kings were hidden. If Joshua had left them there, they could have come back and caused big trouble later. It's the same with us. Sometimes, we try to hide or ignore our problems.

Maybe you had a fight with a friend. But you never said sorry. You just acted like it never happened. But that problem is still there. It's just hiding like the five kings in the cave. Later on, that problem could come back and cause bigger trouble for you. So don't leave it or ignore it. Say sorry to your friend. Make it right.

Always remember: Hidden problems don't go away on their own.

#2. Don't Stop Too Early

Joshua told his men, "Don't stop! Keep going!" They didn't stop just because victory was at hand.

It's easy to quit when things feel okay for a while. Maybe you said you would read your Bible every day. You did well for a few days. Then you stopped. Don't stop too early. Keep praying. Keep reading your Bible. Keep doing what is right – especially when things are going well. Good habits need to keep going, not just start.

#3. Don't Give the Devil a Chance

The Bible says, "Don't give place to the devil."

That means don't leave any open door for bad things to get in. Maybe you know that some videos you watch make you think bad thoughts. But you keep watching them anyway. Or maybe you have friends that are a bad influence to you. That's giving the devil a way in!

Stop watching those videos. Stop spending time with bad friends. Choose what is good. Don't give the enemy any space in your life. God wants your whole heart, not just most of it.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one hidden problem in your life that you need to deal with this week?
2. What is one good habit you stopped doing that you want to start again?

Activity Time

Close the Door!

Objective:

Help children understand that they should not give sin a place in their lives by keeping their hearts open to Jesus and choosing to do what is right.

Materials Needed:

- Construction paper or coloured paper
- Crayons or markers
- Pencil (for ages 6–12)

Teacher Preparation:

- Prepare a sample by folding one sheet of construction paper in half to make a simple door that opens and closes.
- Provide one sheet of construction paper for each child.

Instruction for the Teacher:

Ages 3–5

1. Help each child fold a sheet of construction paper in half to make a door.
2. Let them decorate the outside and draw a large heart inside.
3. Explain that just as Joshua closed the cave, we should keep our hearts closed to wrong choices and open to Jesus.

1. Read the memory verse together: "Neither give place to the devil." – Ephesians 4:27 (NKJV).
2. Ask each child to name one good choice they can make this week, then close the paper door together.

Ages 6–12

1. Have each child fold a sheet of construction paper in half to make a door and decorate the outside.
2. Inside the door, create two sections: "Close the Door To" and "Open the Door To." Write or draw 3–5 examples in each section.
3. Invite a few children to share one answer, then explain that, like Joshua, we should not leave room for sin.
4. Read the memory verse together and have everyone close their paper door, saying, "I choose to follow Jesus!"

Joshua 11:1-15;

Ephesians 6:10-18

Today's Lesson

Israel had been winning many battles. But the battles were not over.

A new and much bigger problem came from the north. A king named Jabin heard about Israel. He was scared. So, he called many other kings to join him.

Their army was so big it was like the sand on the beach! They had horses, too. And big war machines called chariots. This was the biggest fight Israel had ever faced. But God told Joshua, "Do not be afraid. I will give them all to you tomorrow." And just like before, God kept His word. Israel won!

But God also gave a special rule. He said, burn the chariots and destroy the horses. Joshua obeyed. All of it. He left nothing undone.

#1. Higher Levels Bring Harder Battles

Israel kept winning. But each new battle was bigger and harder than the last. That is how life works. When you grow, the tests get more difficult too. When you move to a higher grade at school, the work becomes harder and the tests become longer.

That is not a bad thing. It just means you are growing. And don't be scared. Just ask God to help you with bigger things as you grow.

#2. Always Put Your Trust in God

God told Joshua to burn the chariots and destroy the horses. Even though they looked strong and useful. Why? Because God did not want Israel to start trusting in horses instead of trusting in Him. It is the same with us. It is easy to trust in our own ideas or our own strength instead of God.

Before you try to fix a big problem, stop and ask God first. Trust Him. Don't just rely on yourself or your own abilities.

#3. Do All of What God Says

Joshua did not obey some of God's words. He obeyed all of them. He left nothing out. When God asks you to do something, like say sorry to someone or stop a bad habit, don't do it halfway. Don't say "Sorry" half-heartedly. Do everything you need to do. Finish it.

That is real obedience. And God is pleased when we do everything He says!

Discussion Question:

1. What is one thing God has been asking you to do that you haven't finished yet?
2. Where can you start trusting God more this week?

Activities 3: Deeper Consecration for Bigger Battles

Detective rule

Read Joshua 11:1-15. Note the scale of the enemy and Joshua's response.

Passage	Evidence to find	What it teaches
Joshua 11:1-5	How large was the gathered army?	Why does the description emphasise number?
Joshua 11:6	What did God say before the battle?	What was promised, and what was required?

Joshua 11:15	What phrase describes Joshua's obedience?	What does 'left nothing undone' mean for us?

1. The enemy is described as sand on the seashore, yet God says do not be afraid. How do you hold both truths at once?

2. Joshua 11:15 says he left nothing undone. Where is partial obedience a temptation for you?

Today's Lesson

We have been following the story of Joshua and the people of Israel as they fought to take the Promised Land.

They won at Jericho. They won at Ai. They beat the kings in the south and the kings in the north. But today's lesson comes from just one short sentence in the Bible.

It says: "Joshua made war a long time with all those kings."

So, Joshua and the Israelites didn't only wage war for a short time. They fought against many enemies for a long time. That tells us something very important. Taking the Promised Land was not quick. It took many battles. Many years. A lot of patience. But Joshua kept going anyway. He didn't give up!

Here's what we can learn from this verse:

#1. Some Things Take a Long Time

Not every prayer gets answered right away. Not every good thing comes fast. Maybe you have been praying for something for a long time. And nothing seems to change yet. Maybe you have been trying hard at school, but progress is slow. That is okay. Some things just take time.

Joshua did not win all his battles in one day. And God was still with him the whole time. So don't stop. Keep going. God is still working even when you can't see it.

#2. Don't Get Tired of Doing Good

The Bible says, "Don't get tired of doing good. At the right time you will get a reward if you don't give up." It is normal to feel tired. Especially when you work hard and don't see results yet. Maybe you have been kind to a classmate for a long time, and they still don't treat you well. Maybe you help at home but no one seems to notice.

Don't stop. Keep doing good. God sees what you're doing even when no one else does.

#3. Keep Standing

The Bible says after you have done all you can, keep standing. That means don't quit. Don't walk away. Just stay faithful. Keep praying. Keep trusting God. Keep doing what is right.

Sometimes the best thing you can do is simply not give up.

God rewards people who keep going.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one good thing you have been doing that you don't see results yet?
2. Who is someone you can encourage this week who might be feeling tired or ready to give up?

4. If the balloon falls, encourage everyone to try again until they reach the goal.
5. Celebrate with cheers and remind the children that, like Joshua, they kept trusting God until God gave the victory.
6. Read Galatians 6:9 and encourage the children to keep trusting God and never give up.

Don't Forget What God Did

1 – 6 February 2027

Memory Verse

☐

Joshua 12:1-24;

☐

Ephesians 1:19-23

Today's Lesson

This week's lesson is a bit different. Instead of another big battle, Joshua 12 gives us a long list. It names all the kings that Israel defeated – thirty-one kings in all.

One by one. Each name. Every city.

It may look like a boring list. But it is something very special for the people of God.

Why? Because it is a lasting record of every victory God has given His people. A reminder how God came through for them every time they needed Him. We should do the same!

#1. Remember What God Has Done

That list of defeated kings was written so Israel would not forget how God helped them.

We should do the same. When God helps you with something, write it down. Tell someone. Keep it so you can read it again. Maybe God helped you pass a hard test. Maybe He helped you when you felt alone. Maybe He answered a prayer you forgot you even prayed.

Those wins were given to you by God. So don't forget them. When hard times come, those memories will help you. They will remind you and you can tell yourself: "God helped me before. He can help me again."

#2. Jesus Has Already Won

The kings in Joshua were strong. Their cities were fortified with giant walls. But they all fell before God. The Bible says Jesus is now above every power and every name in the whole world. He has already won the biggest battle of all. He won over sin and over death.

That means nothing you face is bigger than Jesus. No fear can overcome you. No hard problem can defeat you. No sad situation can put you down. Why? Because Jesus is above them all. And He is on your side!

#3. Say Thank You to God and to Other People

Joshua 12 records wins from both Moses and Joshua. It did not say only Joshua did it all.

It gave credit to Moses too. And most of all to God. When good things happen in your life, say thank you to God first. Then thank the people who helped you – your parents, your teachers, your friends. Good things happen because God uses many people.

So always give credit where it belongs.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one thing God has done for you that you always remember?
2. What is one person you can say thank you to this week for helping you?

Joshua 13:1;

☐

Ephesians 3:14-21

Today's Lesson

Let's continue with the story of Joshua and the Israelites in the Promised Land. Joshua had accomplished a lot of things. He fought Jericho. He fought Ai. He defeated many kings and conquered a lot of cities. He was old now. Very old.

You would think God might say, "Great job, Joshua! You can rest now." But that is not what God said. God told Joshua, "You are old now. But there is still much land that has not been taken yet." Even after all those years and all those battles, the work was not finished. Here's what the Bible is teaching us from that verse:

#1. Doing a Lot Doesn't Mean You're Done

Joshua had done so much. But God showed him there was more left to do. That can happen to us too. Maybe you have been kind to your friends all week. That's great! But there might still be someone who needs your kindness today.

Maybe you have been doing well in one subject at school. That's awesome! But there are more subjects that still need your effort. Doing good things in the past does not mean you are finished.

So, keep going and keep up the good work!

#2. Don't Stop Caring About What's Left

It is easy to feel happy about what we have done and forget what is left to do. Maybe your class helped one person in need. That is wonderful! But there might be other people who still need help too. Don't let your heart get too comfortable.

Don't lose your focus on the things that still need to be done.

#3. There Is Always More to Learn About God

The Bible says we can keep learning how big God's love is.

That means even after you have learned a lot about God, there is still more to discover. Maybe you already know a few Bible verses. That's great! But there are more verses, more stories, and more about God to learn.

So, keep growing. Keep learning. There is always more of God to know!

Discussion Question:

1. What is one good thing you have been doing that you'd like to continue doing?
2. What is one new thing about God you would like to learn this week?

The Danger of Settling Early

Detective rule

Read Joshua 13:1-7. Note Joshua's age and God's assessment.

Passage	Evidence to find	What it teaches
Joshua 13:1	What two facts does God state together?	Why mention age and unfinished land in one breath?
Joshua 13:2-5	Which regions remained?	How much was actually left?
Joshua 13:6	What did God promise to do?	What was Joshua still required to do?
Joshua 13:7	What instruction closes the section?	Why divide land not yet taken?

1. God acknowledged Joshua's age and still spoke of land remaining. What does that say about calling in every season?

2. What is the difference between resting and settling?

3. Name one area where you have accepted less than God has offered, and one step forward.

My prayer: Lord, keep me from settling where You have told me to advance.

Today's Lesson

Let's continue the story of Joshua and the Israelites in the Promised Land. After so many battles, Israel had finally taken a lot of the land. Now it was time for Joshua to divide the land among the Israelites.

Israel had 12 tribes. Each tribe got their own portion. Their own piece of land to live and care for. The land was different sizes for different tribes depending on how many people each tribe had. Some got more. Some got less. But every tribe got something. But one tribe – the tribe of Levi – got no land at all.

Why? Because God said He would be their portion. God Himself was their inheritance. That means instead of land, they got something even better: a special relationship and closeness with God forever.

#1. Everyone has a Part to Play

Every tribe got a job. A piece of land to take care of. It's also the place where they can serve. It is the same in God's family. Everyone has something to do. Maybe you are good at singing. Or praying. Or being kind to new people. Or helping clean up after an event.

All of those things matter. God gave each of us something special to use for Him. So don't say, "I have nothing to give." You do. Just ask God to show you what it is and then use it.

#2. Don't be Jealous for Someone Else's Part

Each tribe got a different portion of land. Some looked bigger. Some looked smaller. But every tribe had to be happy with what God gave them and take care of it well. It can be easy to look at what someone else has and wish it was yours. Maybe your friend gets to sing in front of everyone, and you wish you could do that too.

But God gave you your own special assignment. It might be different from other people. But it is just as important. So be happy with what God gave you. And take care of it well!

#3. When Everyone Does Their Part, Everyone Grows

The Bible says the body of Christ grows when every part does its job. Think of your body. Your eyes help you see. Your legs help you walk. Your hands help you hold things. If one part stops working, the whole body suffers.

It is the same in God's family. When everyone does their part – praying, helping, sharing, serving – the whole group gets stronger. So do your part because every part matters.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one thing you are good at that you can use to help others at church or at home this week?
2. Why do you think it's bad to feel jealous of what other people have?

☐ BE GLAD for others' gifts	☐ ENVY what others have
☐ SHARE with my family	☐ KEEP everything for me

Say it aloud: I will follow God with my whole heart.

Activities 2: Stewarding Your Portion

Detective rule

Read Joshua 14:1-5 and 1 Corinthians 12:12-18.

Passage	Evidence to find	What it teaches
Joshua 14:1-2	How was the land divided?	Why by lot rather than preference?
Joshua 14:3-4	Which tribe received no land?	What did the Levites receive instead?
Joshua 14:5	How closely was God's command followed?	Why note the exactness?
1 Corinthians 12:18	Who sets the members in the body?	How does this parallel land division?

1. Land was assigned rather than chosen. How do you respond when your portion is not the one you would have picked?

2. The Levites received the Lord Himself as their inheritance. What does that suggest about value?

3. Describe your current 'portion' and one way you will steward it better this term.

My prayer: Lord, help me be faithful with the portion You have given me.

Today's Lesson

Today we are going to meet another special character in the Bible.

His name is Caleb, a friend of Joshua.

Many years ago, when Israel was preparing to enter the Promised Land, Moses sent twelve men to spy out the land. Joshua and Caleb were among them.

Ten of the spies came back scared. They told the Israelites, "The people living there are too big and too strong. We can't win against them!" But Caleb and his friend Joshua said something different. They were very excited to enter the Promised Land and they told the people, "God is with us. We can do this!" Caleb trusted God. That's why God made a special promise to him. God told Caleb, "The land your feet walked on will be yours one day."

Caleb received that promise forty-five years ago. Now he is eighty-five years old. Israel is sharing the land. Most people his age would ask for something easy and small. But not Caleb.

He walked up to Joshua and said, "Give me this mountain!" The mountain he wanted had giants living on it. Big strong people called the Anakims. Hard cities with tall walls.

But Caleb still wanted to take possession of it. Why? Because God had promised it to him. And Caleb knew God would never fail. Here's what we can learn from Caleb's faith:

#1. Don't Give Up on God's Promises

Caleb waited forty-five years. That's a very long time! But he never stopped believing that God would fulfil His promise to him. Maybe you are waiting for God to answer a prayer right now and it feels like you've been waiting for a really long time. Don't give up. God does not forget His promises. Keep trusting Him. His timing is always right.

#2. Don't Always Pick the Easy Way

Caleb did not pick the easiest land. He picked the hardest. Not because he's confident of his own strength. It's because God promised it to him and Caleb knew that God would fight for him. Sometimes God asks us to do hard things. Maybe it is standing up for what is right when your friends don't. Maybe it is being kind to someone who is not kind to you. Don't always pick the easy way. Ask God to give you strength to do the right thing even if it's hard.

#3. Stay Strong on the Inside

Caleb said, "I am just as strong now as when I was forty."

How?

He stayed on God's side every day. His strength didn't come from his own abilities. It came from the inside.

The Bible says God can make us strong on the inside through His Spirit. It means God's own power living inside us and helping us in everything we do. When you pray, read the Bible, and trust God, He makes you stronger inside. And that inner strength helps you face even the hardest things.

Discussion Question:

1. Do you have a promise from God that you are still waiting for? How can you keep trusting Him while you wait?
2. What is the right thing God might be asking you to do this week? Do it even if it's hard.

Today's Lesson

Today we meet five sisters in the Bible.

Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. They were the daughters of a man named Zelophehad.

Many years ago, their father had died. And in those days, when a father died with no sons, the family could lose their land. But the daughters of Zelophehad knew God had made a promise that He would give the Israelites the Promise Land. And the sisters believed that God's promise was for them too.

So they did something bold. They walked up to the leaders and told them, "Our father died and he had no sons. But please give us our land too." It took real courage to stand up and ask in front of everyone.

Moses did not push them away. He asked God about their situation. And God answered, "They are right. Give them their land." The daughters of Zelophehad received what God had promised.

#1. It's Okay to Ask

These sisters could have stayed quiet. They could have just accepted that they're going to lose their land and move on. But they didn't. They spoke up, talked to the leaders, and God said they were right. Maybe you need help at school but you feel too shy to ask your teacher. Maybe something is bothering you at home but you don't know how to bring it up.

It's okay to ask. Just be respectful when you do. God loves it when we are brave and kind at the same time.

#2. God Gave You Something Special

The sisters knew God gave their father a portion of land so they asked for it. God has also given every one of us something. He gave you gifts, abilities, and a place to serve. Maybe you are good at helping people. Maybe you are good at making others feel welcome. Maybe you are great at praying. Maybe you have talent in singing or dancing.

That's not an accident. God put that in you. And He wants you to use it.

#3. You Have a Place in God's Family

The Bible says everyone who believes in Jesus has a place in God's family. That means God has a place for you. And you also have something to offer. God put it in you.

And He always keeps His word.

Discussion Question:

1. What is a gift or ability God has given you that you can use to help others this week?
2. What is a prayer that you want to ask God to answer? Pray for it boldly.

“Redeeming the time,

Read God's Word with Me!

☐

Joshua 18:1-10;

☐

Ephesians 5:14-17

Today's Lesson

Israel had won many battles. A lot of the land had been taken. But seven tribes still hadn't received their land. The land was ready for the taking. God had already given it to them. But they just hadn't gone to take possession of it.

So Joshua asked them a 'not-so-gentle' question. He asked them, "How long are you going to wait before you go and take the land God gave you?" Ouch!

Good thing Joshua also gave them a plan. He said, "Send some men to walk through the land. Look at it carefully. Write down what you see. Come back and report. Then we will divide it up."

The men followed Joshua's instructions. They walked through the land, wrote everything down, and came back. And Joshua was able to give each tribe their portion. The lesson? God had already done His part. Now it was time for them to do theirs.

#1. Stop Waiting and Start Moving

The tribes had everything they needed. The land was right there. But they just kept waiting. Maybe it's the same with you. Perhaps God has already given you something – an ability, an opportunity, a chance to help someone. But you keep putting it off. Don't wait too long. Start with one small step today.

Maybe that's saying sorry to someone you hurt. Maybe it's reading your Bible a little more. Maybe it's helping out at church when someone asks.

God already did His part. Now it's your turn.

#2. Make a Plan

Joshua didn't just tell the tribes to go. He gave them clear steps to follow.

That's a good lesson for us too. When God gives you something to do, think about how you're going to do it.

For example, if you want to pray more, decide when. Before school? Before bed? Pick a time and stick to it. Having a plan makes it so much easier to actually do it.

#3. Don't Waste Time

The Bible says we should use our time wisely because our days matter. Time is a gift from God. And like any gift, we can use it well or waste it.

Think about how you spend your afternoons after school. Are you using that time for something good? Ask God to help you use your time in a way that makes Him happy.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one thing God has been asking you to do but you keep putting it off?
2. How do you want to use your time better this week?

Activity Time

all ages

Go with God!

Objective:

Help children understand that God wants us to obey Him right away instead of waiting.

Materials Needed

- Green and red circles (or paddles)
- Paper footprints or masking tape
- Basket or box
- Action cards (picture cards for ages 3–5; word or simple scenario cards for ages 6–12)

Teacher Preparation

- Create a path of footprints leading to a basket.
- Place the action cards inside the basket.

Instruction for the Teacher

1. Briefly explain that Joshua told God's people to stop waiting and follow God's plan.
2. Have the children line up at the start of the path.

3. Hold up the green circle and say, "Ready, set... GO!" Children walk, hop, or march along the path. Hold up the red circle for everyone to freeze.
4. When a child reaches the basket, have them choose one action card. Read the card aloud if needed, then invite the whole class to act it out together.
5. Continue until every child has had a turn. Conclude by reminding the class that God wants us to take the first step and obey Him without waiting.

Today's Lesson

Tribes of Israel

When you read Chapter 19 of the book of Joshua, it looks like it's just a long list of names and cities. But it actually teaches us something really important.

After winning a lot of battles inside the Promised Land, God gave each tribe their own land. Now, every tribe of Israel has their own cities and own territory to take care of. God also gave them an instruction that they couldn't take someone else's land. Every tribe had to accept what God gave them and do their best to make their land fruitful and productive.

Joshua also got his own portion of land. He built it and his family lived there with him.

#1. God Puts You Somewhere to Serve Him

God gave each tribe their own piece of land to take care of. In the same way, God also put you somewhere and that's where He wants you to serve and grow. It could be at your school where you can serve God by praying for your classmates, sharing God's Word with them, or helping them when they are having a hard time.

#2. Every Assignment Matters

When God divided the land to the tribes of Israel, some tribes got a bigger land area. Some got smaller portions. But it doesn't mean that one tribe is more important than the other. It's the same in God's family. We all have different assignments that we need to do. God has given us different talents that He wants us to use for His glory. But it doesn't mean that some talents are more important than the others.

Every assignment matters. So don't think that part is too small or not important. If we all do our assignments well, the church grows stronger!

#3. Serve with Wisdom

The Bible tells us to walk carefully. Don't be like a fool, but live like someone who is wise.

We can apply this wisdom when serving God and others.

For example, before accepting an assignment, we need to ask ourselves, "Can I do this well? Is this what God wants me to do?" Don't just jump in. Always ask God when making important decisions and the small ones too.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one thing you can do at your school to help others?
2. Why do you think it's important to serve God with excellence?

Today's Lesson

Sometimes, when we make mistakes, we feel scared that people would be angry at us. Today's lesson will teach us how to handle those kinds of situations.

In Chapter 20 of the Book of Joshua, God told the Israelites to set up special places called "Cities of Refuge." It's a place where someone who hurt another person by mistake could go to. The people in that city would keep that person safe until they're able to find out the truth of what happened.

By doing this, no one could hurt the person who made a mistake. And they could do a proper investigation to know exactly the truth. Here's what we can learn from this:

#1. Learn to Listen First

In ancient Israel, if a person hurts another intentionally, there will be a punishment for them. The Cities of Refuge are for those people who hurt or kill someone by accident so that they won't be punished without hearing the truth first.

We should do the same when someone makes a mistake. Don't judge the person right away. Instead, listen to what they have to say first. Give them a chance to explain themselves then find if what they're saying is true.

#2. Be Kind to People Who Made Mistakes

The Cities of Refuge were for those people who made some really big mistakes. But God didn't want others judging them immediately. Instead, He wanted these persons to be safe first so they could know the truth.

It means even if the person made a terrible mistake, God still wanted the people to be kind to that person and give them a chance to talk. You can do the same. Maybe a classmate got into trouble at school. Instead of laughing at them, you could express kindness to them and listen to what really happened.

#3. Jesus is our Safe Refuge

The Cities of Refuge actually point to Jesus. It shows us that when we do something wrong, instead of running away from God, we should run to Him because He is our Safe Refuge.

God won't push us away. He listens. And when we genuinely repent, which means we say sorry and turn away from what we did wrong, He forgives us and gives us a fresh start.

Discussion Question:

1. How can you express kindness to someone who's going through a difficult time?
2. Why do you think it's important to listen first before judging someone who commits a mistake?

Today's Lesson

Today, let's talk about a tribe in Israel that was different from all the other tribes. They are called the Levites.

Back then, there were 12 tribes in Israel. Every tribe received their own portion of land except the Levites tribe. God actually spread them out across all Israel.

Why did God do it? Because God gave the Levites a special assignment of teaching the Israelites about Him. Their goal was to help the people of Israel to stay close to God so the Lord spread them across the land so there would be Levites everywhere!

#1. Go to Where the People Are

God wanted the Levites to teach people about Him. So, He didn't put them all in one place. God spread them across all the tribes of Israel.

That's an example for us to follow. We should not wait for people to come to us. Instead, we should go to them so we could share God's love to those people. Maybe you have a classmate who still doesn't know Jesus. Go to that friend, say 'Hello' and introduce yourself. Then when the time comes, share who Jesus is and how much He loves them.

#2. Help Others Stay Close to God

The Levites spread out among the different tribes so they could teach them God's Word and help them stay close to God. The Lord wants us to do the same.

For example, every week, you're learning something new whenever we study God's Word through our lessons. You can actually go out and share whatever you learned with a friend. You can also pray for others and just be there to help them when they need it. That's how we can help others grow closer to God.

#3. God Always Keeps His Promises

At the end of the Book of Joshua, the Bible says something that's really amazing. God's Word says, "Not one promise God made had failed. Every single one came true." That's so amazing, right?

Everything God said came to pass. Because that's who God is. He always keeps His word. So whatever promise God made to you, trust Him. It will happen because God's promise always comes true.

Discussion Question:

1. Do you know anyone who still doesn't have a relationship with God?
2. What can you do this week to help them know Jesus?

Today's Lesson

We are now getting closer to the end of the Book of Joshua. And today's lesson is about one of the most powerful statements written in the Bible.

Joshua 21:45 says, "Not one of all the Lord's good promises to Israel failed; every one was fulfilled." It means every single promise God made came true. That's so amazing, right?

God made a promise to Abraham that one day his descendants would occupy the land where he was living as a foreigner. It took quite some time. Israel waited hundreds of years. But in the end, God fulfilled His promise. He is indeed our faithful God!

#1. God Never Breaks a Promise

People sometimes break their promises. God is never like that. When God says that He will do something, He will definitely do it. So whatever prayers you have, don't give up. Even if it seems nothing is happening, keep believing in God. Wait patiently. His promises are always true.

#2. Waiting is Not The Same as God Saying "No"

Israel waited hundreds of years. Perhaps during that waiting period, some of them thought that God had already forgotten them. But that's not true. God still fulfilled His promise in His own timing.

That's why when you feel like God is taking too long to do something, remember Israel. Yes, they waited a long time but God came through when the time was right. So always trust Him – even when you can't see what He's doing.

#3. God Can Do More Than You Can Imagine

That's a wonderful promise from the Bible. God can do more than anything we can ask or imagine. Just like what He did for Israel. He didn't just give them their own portion of land. He also gave them peace and victory over all their enemies.

So whatever you have in mind, God can go beyond that. What He has in store for you is bigger than what you think. So, keep believing Him and His promises!

Discussion Question:

1. Do you have a promise from God that you're still waiting to happen?
2. What is one thing you can do today to strengthen your faith in God's faithfulness?

Daily Devotional

2 Corinthians 1:20	How are God's promises answered?	Where do all promises meet?

1. Scripture claims not one word of God's promise failed. How do you hold that when an answer is delayed?

2. What is the difference between God being late and God being faithful?

3. Write about one promise you have seen God keep, in detail.

My prayer: Lord, thank You that not one of Your words has ever failed.

Today's Lesson

We're almost done with the Book of Joshua. But before we move forward, let's go back a bit during the time when Moses was still alive and before they crossed the Jordan River to conquer the Promised Land.

On the other side of the Jordan River, the tribes of Reuben, Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh had already claimed their portion of the land. It was a blessing from the Lord. But Moses told them that even though God already gave them their own territory, they still have to cross the Jordan River and fight side by side with the other tribes. So, that's exactly what they did.

They crossed the Jordan River and stood with the rest of Israel until they won every battle. When it was all over, Joshua called the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh. He told them, "You kept every command. You stayed with your brothers. You never gave up." Then he blessed them and sent them home with a reminder to stay faithful to God.

#1. Be Faithful Before God Opens the Next Door

Before the two and a half tribes could go home to their territory on the other side of the Jordan, they needed to stay faithful to their assignment first – which was to help the other tribes conquer the Promised Land. And they accomplished their mission. So, when the time came, Joshua sent them home. In the same way, God wants us to be faithful to our assignment before He sends us to our next mission. It's important that we always do our best with the things He entrusted to us. And when we prove ourselves to be faithful, that's when God brings us to the next big thing.

#2. Take Your Faith With You Wherever You Go

Joshua reminded the two and a half tribes to stay faithful to God even after they went home to the other side of the Jordan River. In your life, you'll go through many different situations as well. New school. New friends. New places. Make sure you always take your faith with you. Wherever God takes you, keep praying, keep reading your Bible and keep loving God.

#3. Share God's Blessings to Others

Joshua told the two and a half tribes to go home to their families and carry with them all the riches they took after the battles. He also told them to share their blessings with their brothers. When good things happen to you or when God blesses you, don't keep it all to yourself. Share it with other people and be a blessing to those around you.

Discussion Question:

1. How can you keep your faith strong?
2. Why do you think it's important to share the blessings we receive from God to other people?

Ephesians 4:1-6, 25

Today's Lesson

The tribes of Israel finally had their own land. But right away, a big problem came up. Two and a half tribes built a huge altar by the river before they went home.

The rest of Israel got really upset so they got ready for war. But first, they sent some leaders to go ask what happened. Isn't it smart that they asked before they fought? The two and a half tribes explained that they did not build the altar to offer sacrifices to God, like the priests did at the real altar. They built it as a reminder, a special place that would help their kids remember they still belonged to God, even when there's a big river between them. When the leaders heard the truth, they were glad and they didn't continue with the war.

Here's what we can learn from today's story:

#1. Ask Before You Get Upset

Sometimes, we judge someone before we know the whole story. Maybe a friend walks past you and does not say hello, so you think they are upset with you. However, they may simply not have seen you. If you become angry with them, you could hurt their feelings for no reason. Always ask questions first and never judge someone without knowing the full story.

#2. Speak the Truth in a Kind Way

When the two and a half tribes were asked what happened, they did not get angry or yell back. They stayed calm and told their brothers the truth. When someone accuses you of doing something wrong, take a deep breath and tell them the truth. That is so much better than yelling back.

#3. We're All on the Same Team

Israel almost fought each other. But they were all on God's team. When you fight with a brother, sister, or friend, remember you are still on the same team. How cool is it that God wants us to work things out instead of staying mad?

Discussion Question:

1. What can you do the next time you feel confused or hurt by what a friend did?
2. Why do you think telling the truth calmly works better than yelling?

Activity Time

One Team, One Goal!

Objective:

Children will learn that God's family works best when everyone participates, encourages one another, and works together toward a common goal.

Materials Needed:

- 10–20 plastic or paper cups
- 1 soft ball (or rolled paper ball)
- Masking tape (optional, for a throwing line)

Teacher Preparation:

- Divide the class into 2–4 mixed-age teams.
- Stack the cups at one end of the play area.
- Mark a throwing line about 6–10 feet (2–3 metres) away, adjusting the distance for the children's ages.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Explain that each team has one goal: knock down all the cups together.
2. Have each team line up behind the throwing line.
3. Players take turns rolling or gently throwing the ball. Each child gets one turn before anyone goes again.
4. Team members may encourage and guide one another, but they must use kind and respectful words.
5. Continue playing until all the cups are knocked down.
6. After the game, ask the children a few questions about teamwork, listening, speaking kindly, and how the activity relates to today's Bible lesson.

Monday, 10 May 2027:

The two and a half tribes built an altar to remind everyone they belonged to God, but others thought they had turned away.

Sometimes people can misunderstand your good intentions too.

Ask God to help you explain things clearly so no one gets confused.

Tuesday, 11 May 2027:

Israel almost went to war because of an assumption.

Good thing they asked questions first to clear things up.

The next time you feel upset with someone, ask before you judge.

Pray that God would help you find out the truth before you get upset.

Wednesday, 12 May 2027:

The two and a half tribes told the truth calmly instead of arguing.

When it feels like someone is accusing you that you did something wrong, tell them the truth kindly. Ask God to help your words heal instead of hurt.

Thursday, 13 May 2027:

Friday, 14 May 2027:

Do not believe everything you hear about someone right away.

Find out the whole story first. Ask God to help you be fair and patient with others.

Saturday, 15 May 2027:

When you feel angry, stop and take a breath before you speak.

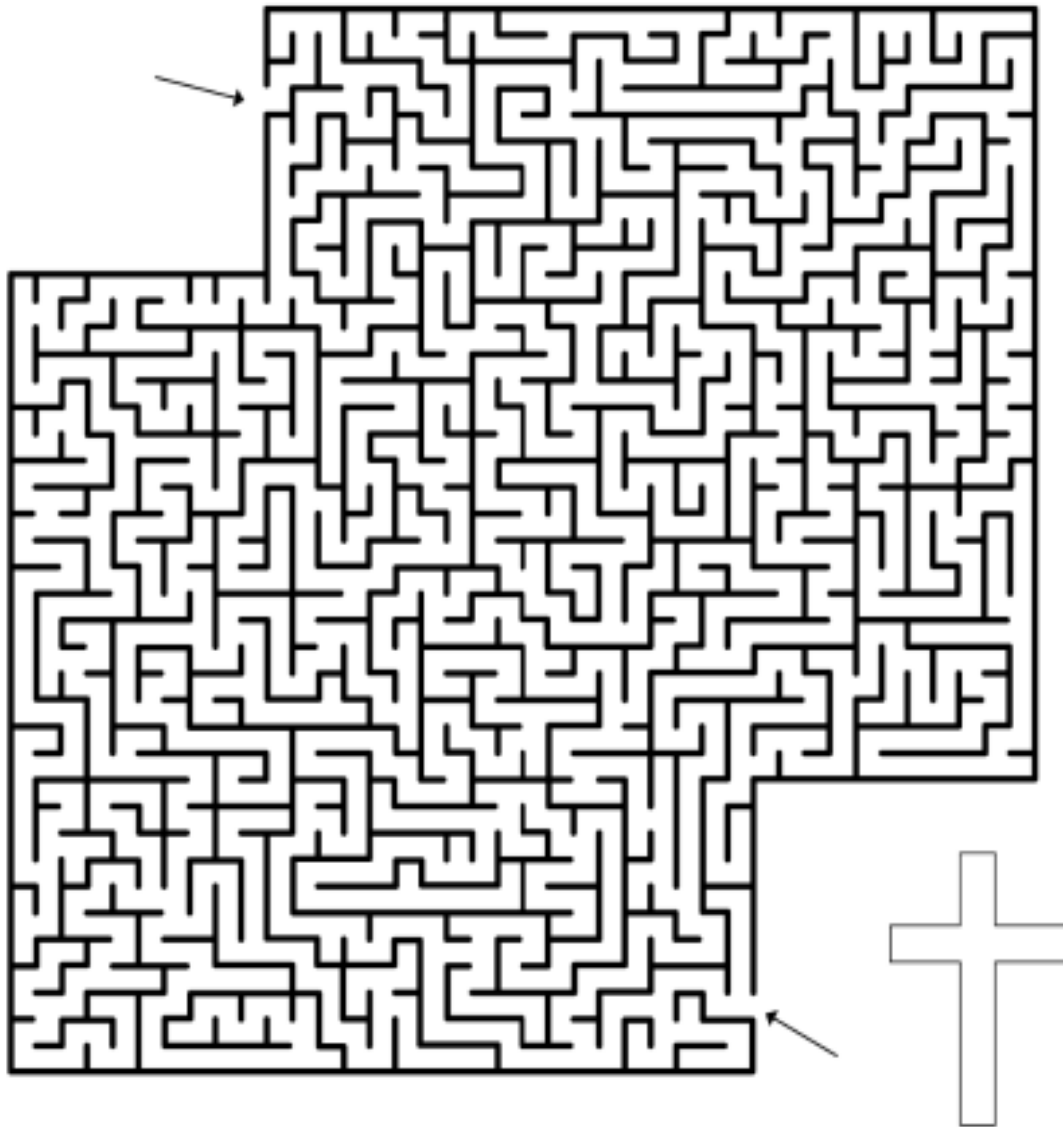

Kind words can fix a problem, but angry words can make it worse.

Pray that God would help you be a peacemaker at home and with friends.

Don't Forget God When You Win

– Joshua 23:8 (ICB)

☐

Joshua 23:1-8;

☐

Ephesians 5:8-17

Today's Lesson

By now, Israel had won all their fights. As God promised them, they successfully conquered the “Promised Land.” And God had given them rest from all their enemies so there’s now peace in the land.

Joshua was also old. So he called all the leaders together one more time to give them his last message. First, Joshua reminded the people that God was the one who fought for them. They didn’t win those fights because of their own power. It was all because of God. He also told them to keep following God's commands and to stay away from the fake gods that other people worship. Most of all, he commanded them to hold on tight to God and never let Him go.

#1. Don’t Forget God When You Win

Sometimes we come to God and pray really hard before a test, a game, or a big moment. But once we win, we forget to say “Thank You!” to God. It’s like we always ask for His help, then forget Him the second things go well. As God’s children, winning should make us say thank God more, not less.

#2. Be Smart With the Friends You’re Choosing

Joshua told Israel not to mix with people who did not love God. The same is true for us.

If a friend keeps pulling you into trouble, or wants you to tell lies, or tells you to be mean, that friend can pull you away from God too. So be smart with choosing your friends. Pick buddies who help you follow and stay close to God.

#3. Stay Close to God Everyday

Joshua told Israel to hold on tight to God every single day. We should do the same.

Maybe you only pray hard when you are scared, but forget God when life feels easy.

Stay close to God on your good days too, not just on your hard days.

Discussion Question:

1. Do you find it easier to pray when things are hard or when things are going well? Why?
2. What is one way you can remember to thank God the next time something good happens to you?

Thank You Trophy

Objective:

Help children recognise that every victory and blessing comes from God and encourage them to thank Him in every success.

Materials Needed:

- One "Thank You Trophy" activity sheet per child (age-appropriate)
- Crayons, coloured pencils, or markers
- Child-safe scissors (optional)
- Glue and stickers (optional)

Teacher Preparation:

- Prepare one "Thank You Trophy" activity sheet per child.
- Use age-appropriate templates:
 - Ages 3–5: Draw one blessing from God.
 - Ages 6–9: Draw or write three blessings from God.
 - Ages 10–12: Write a short reflection about a blessing or victory God has given them, how they can thank Him, and how they will stay close to Him this week.
- Prepare all materials before class.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Review the lesson and remind the children that every victory and blessing comes from God.
2. Give each child a "Thank You Trophy" activity sheet and colouring materials.
3. Let them colour and decorate their trophy.
4. Guide them to complete the activity according to their age level.
5. Invite volunteers to share one blessing they thanked God for or one way they will stay close to Him.
6. Close the activity with a prayer of thanksgiving.

Monday, 17 May 2027:

Israel had won every battle, but Joshua reminded them that God was the One who fought for them and the reason for their victory. It is easy to feel proud after you win something. Ask God to help you stay humble and thankful when good things happen to you.

Tuesday, 18 May 2027:

Joshua told Israel to keep obeying God's Word. Following God should not stop just because life gets easier. Pray that God would help you keep reading your Bible and obeying Him, even on your best days.

Wednesday, 19 May 2027:

Joshua warned Israel to stay away from the fake gods of the nations around them. The people and things you spend time with can pull you closer to God or push you away from Him. Ask God to help you choose friends who make you love Him more.

Thursday, 20 May 2027:

Your closest friends should help you obey God, not make it harder. Think about who pulls you toward good choices and who pulls you toward trouble. Pray that God would surround you with friends who help you grow.

Friday, 21 May 2027:

Do not join in on things that ask you to lie, cheat, or hide the truth, even if everyone else is doing it. Pray that God would give you courage to say no to what is wrong.

Saturday, 22 May 2027:

Joshua held on tight to God every single day, not just during hard times. Stay close to God on your easy days, not only on your hard ones. Ask God to help the fire in your heart keep burning bright.

Today's Lesson

We're now coming to the end of Joshua's story. He is very old now and he's talking to the Israelite leaders about everything that God did for them. Joshua reminded them of how God gave them victory by pushing out huge, strong nations, cities with great walls, and even armies with giants.

No one could stand up to God's people. Joshua even told them something super awesome. He said one of their men could chase away a thousand men! Can you imagine that? And it's not because they're strong warriors. It happened because God fought for them.

It means one person, plus God, was stronger than a thousand men. Isn't that amazing?

#1. You Are Never Too Small

Maybe you feel like the only kid at school who prays before lunch. Maybe you are the only one in your class who tries to do what is right. Sure, that can feel lonely. But one kid with God is never too small. You do not need a big group to matter to God. And you do not need a lot of people to make a change right where you are.

#2. Always Rely on God's Power

Israel did not win because they had the biggest and strongest army around. They won because God was fighting for them. So when you feel weak, small, or scared, remember it is not about your own strength. Ask God for help and let His power work through you. That is so much better than trying to do it all alone.

#3. Share What God Gives You

Even if you're just one kid, you can still do a lot for God. You could be the one who asks a friend to come to church. You could be the one who tells someone about Jesus for the very first time. Don't miss that chance just because you felt too shy to try. A small invitation from you could change a lot of lives.

Discussion Question:

1. Do you have any friends who still don't know Jesus?
2. What can you do this week to invite them to church?

Activity Time

Ages 3-9

Stronger Together with God

Objective:

Help children understand that God's power is greater than their own and encourage them to rely on Him in every situation.

Materials Needed:

- Plastic cups or lightweight blocks
- Sticky notes or small paper slips
- Markers or crayons

Teacher Preparation:

Build a sample tower using plastic cups or blocks. Prepare enough cups for each group, one sticky note or paper slip for each child, and arrange the children into small groups.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Divide the class into small groups and give each group a set of cups or blocks. Challenge them to build the tallest tower within one minute.

2. Gather everyone and explain that although teamwork helped them build the tower, Israel's victories came because God fought for them, not because they were the strongest (Joshua 23:9-10).

3. Give each child a sticky note or paper slip and ask them to draw or write one way they will rely on God's power this week (e.g., pray first, obey parents, be kind, forgive, or share Jesus).

4. Invite the children to take turns placing their notes around the tower while saying, "I will trust God's power."

5. Conclude by praying together and reminding the class that God's power helps us do what is right, even when we feel small or weak.

Victory Code

Objective:

Help students remember to always rely on God's power.

Materials Needed

- Paper (1 per student)
- Pencil
- Whiteboard or chart paper
- Marker

Teacher Preparation

- Divide the class into 2–4 teams.
- Write the scrambled words on the whiteboard or chart paper before class.

Instruction for the Teacher

1. Divide the class into teams and give each student a sheet of paper and a pencil.
2. Ask the teams to work together to unscramble the words, with each student writing the answers on their own paper.
3. After solving all the words, have the teams arrange the answers to reveal the secret message.
4. The first team to write the correct secret message on their papers wins.
5. Read the message together and remind the class that, like Joshua, we should always rely on God's power.

Daily Devotional

24 – 29 May 2027

Monday, 24 May 2027:

Joshua told Israel that one man could chase a thousand. It's not because Israel was strong, but because God fought for them. You are never too small for God to use you. Ask God to help you rely on His power when you feel weak.

Tuesday, 25 May 2027:

Wednesday, 26 May 2027:

Thursday, 27 May 2027:

One person can change a lot when God is with them. Think of someone you could invite to church or tell about Jesus this week. Pray for the courage to say something, even if it feels a little scary.

Friday, 28 May 2027:

You are never alone when God is on your side. Even if no one else around you believes like you do, you can still stand strong. Ask God to help you be brave today.

Saturday, 29 May 2027:

Joshua 23:11	What must they take heed to do?	Why link power to love?

Today's Lesson

Today let's continue with Joshua's Final Message to Israel. He already reminded them about what God did for them and how they should stick close to God even when things were easier now.

Next, he gave them an important warning. Joshua told them to watch their hearts and to keep loving God no matter what happens.

Joshua also warned them that if they went back to their old sinful ways and followed people who didn't love God, it would hurt them in the future and draw them away from God. This warning is also for us.

#1. Always Guard Your Heart

You can still go to church, say your prayers, and look like a good kid on the outside.

But your heart can slowly drift from God even if no one else notices. Isn't that a little scary? So always ask yourself, "Do I still love God, or am I just going through the motions?"

Always guard your heart that you don't stray away from God.

#2. Little Things Can Become Big Traps

One small lie can turn into a habit of lying. Saying one wrong word can make you feel that it's okay to speak badly about others. Joshua warned the Israelites that small choices can grow into big traps. Ouch! That is why it is so important to stop early, before it grows into something much bigger.

#3. God Always Gives You a Way Out

Maybe a friend tries to get you to cheat, lie, or do something you know is wrong.

God always gives you a way to say no and walk away. You just have to be brave enough to take it. Loving God means picking Him over the wrong things even if other people are pressuring you.

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's important to stop early when you know you're about to say or do something wrong?
2. What will you do to always guard your heart against things that pull you away from God?

☐

Ephesians 2:11-13

Today's Lesson

We continue with Joshua's Farewell Message to Israel. He's now reminding them of how God has been faithful to them from beginning to end.

Joshua wanted them to look back at everything God promised them and for them to see that God did everything He told them He would do.

Joshua's message was really amazing because he showed them that every single promise of God had come true. Not one thing had failed. But there's a warning. Joshua told them that if the people forgot God and turned away, they would lose the good things He had given them.

#1. God Keeps Every Single Promise He Made

Think about a friend who says they will do something and then never does it. That feels bad, right? God is not like that at all. Every single thing He promised that would happen for Israel came true. God still keeps His word today and He always will keep it. So trust Him with your whole heart.

#2. Remember Where You Came From

Before you knew Jesus, you were far away from God. It was kind of like being a kid left out of a game while the other kids are playing around. Then Jesus came and brought you close. He's like a friend who runs over and says, "Come play with us!" How cool is it that Jesus does that for you? Do not forget how good that feels.

#3. You Are Now Part of God's Family

When you believed and accepted Jesus into your heart as your Lord and Saviour, He welcomeded you to be part of God's Family. He made you His very own child. And as God's child, we should live in a way that honours His Name. Our relationship with God should guide every decision we make so that our thoughts, words and actions would always bring Him glory, which means showing everyone how great and good He is.

Discussion Question:

1. How does it feel to know that God keeps every promise He makes?
2. Why do you think it's important to remember that you're now part of God's family?

Kindness Memory Chain

Objective:

Help children remember God's kindness by thanking Him for the good things He has done and understanding that they belong to God's family.

Materials Needed

- Coloured paper strips (1 per child)
- Crayons
- Tape or stapler
- Marker

Teacher Preparation

- Cut coloured paper into strips.
- Prepare a sample paper strip with a simple drawing (heart, family, food, church, or friend).
- Leave space in the classroom to display the completed paper chain.

Instruction for the Teacher

1. Review the lesson by reminding the children that God always keeps His promises and is always kind.
2. Give each child one paper strip.
3. Ask them to draw one thing they are thankful to God for (e.g., family, food, friends, church, or a happy heart). Younger children may simply colour a heart while the teacher writes their answer.
4. Invite each child to briefly share their drawing by saying, "Thank You, God, for _____."
5. Connect all the paper strips into one Kindness Memory Chain using tape or a stapler.
6. Hang the chain in the classroom as a reminder that God has always been kind to us, and we should never forget His goodness.

Monday, 14 June 2027:

Joshua told Israel to look back and see that God had kept every single promise. Not one thing had failed. Ask God to help you remember all the good things He has already done for you.

Tuesday, 15 June 2027:

God kept every promise He made to Israel. And He still keeps His promises today. You can trust Him completely, even when you cannot see what happens next. Pray that God would help your trust in Him grow stronger.

Wednesday, 16 June 2027:

Before Jesus, we were far away from God. But because of what Jesus did, He brought us close to Him. That is one of the best things that has ever happened to you. Ask God to help you remember how good it feels to be close to Him.

Thursday, 17 June 2027:

When you gave your heart to Jesus, God adopted you into His family. Now, you are not just someone God helps. You are actually someone He calls His own child. Thank God today for making you part of His family.

Friday, 18 June 2027:

Joshua warned Israel not to forget God once things were going well. Do not let good days make you forget who gave them to you. Ask God to help you stay close to Him, even on your easiest days.

Saturday, 19 June 2027:

God has never once broken a promise to you. Let that make you want to love Him back with your whole heart. Pray that your love for God would grow bigger every single day.

Choose to Serve God

☐

Ephesians 4:17-24

Today's Lesson

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

We continue with Joshua's Farewell Message to the whole Israel. In the previous weeks, we learned how he reminded them of everything God did for Israel.

He also gave them instructions to stay close to God and not turn away from Him.

Then Joshua gave them a very important challenge. It was to make a decision whom they would serve. They could choose to continue serving the Lord. And they could choose the fake gods that other people worship. Joshua went ahead and told them, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

#1. You Have to Choose for Yourself

You cannot just believe in God because your mom, dad, or friend does. It has to become your own choice. It is kind of like learning to ride a bike. Someone can hold the seat for you at first, but one day you have to pedal on your own. It's the same with your relationship with God. The choice to serve Him is for you to make.

#2. Always Seek God's Will

Sometimes we already decide on what we want before we even pray to God. We already made our pick and we just want God to say yes to it. But Jesus prayed something different. He prayed, "Not what I want, but what You want." That means asking God what He thinks before you decide. Serving God is choosing to seek God to know His will and not after you have already made up your mind.

#3. Serve God With Your Family

Joshua did not only choose God for himself. He said, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." That means his whole family chose God together. Maybe your family already prays before meals, or maybe you could be the one who starts it. How cool would it be if your home became a place where everyone chose God together?

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's important to choose for yourself the decision to serve God?
2. Do you have members of your family who still don't know Jesus? What can you do this week to invite them to church?

Joshua 24:16-28;

☐

Ephesians 6:6-8

Today's Lesson

Last week, we learned how Joshua declared that he and his family chose to serve the Lord. Then he asked the people whom they would serve?

The people answered Joshua that they would never leave God and they would serve Him, too. But Joshua did not just accept their words right away. He told them, "You cannot serve God carelessly. He is holy, which means He is completely good and set apart, and He will not just look past you turning to other things." It means, he wanted them to really mean it, not just say it and forget about it later.

So the people said it again. And they even said it louder this time. They declared in a really loud voice, "The Lord our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey." Joshua made it official. He wrote it down. And he even set up a big stone to remind everyone what they had promised that day.

#1. Mean What You Say

Have you ever told your parents or your teachers, "I will never do that again," and then you still did it again the very next day? It's easy to say things but keeping your words is the hard part. Always mean what you say. When you tell God that you will follow Him, then make sure you really mean it. Don't just say it and forget it later. Because God is listening to everything you're saying.

#2. Serve God Even When No One Is Watching

Some kids only act good when a grown-up is watching. Maybe they behave in class when the teacher is there. Or they pretend they're obeying the rules because their parents are looking at them. That is not what God wants from us. God wants us to be kind, honest, and obedient all the time even if no one is watching. Remember, God always sees your heart and we cannot hide anything from Him.

#3. Be Proud of Your Relationship With God

Like Joshua and the Israelites, always be bold in your faith. Don't be scared to tell others about Jesus and your relationship with Him. When you have the opportunity, share the stories you learned from the Bible. And don't be ashamed to show people that you actually follow God.

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's hard to keep our word to people?
2. What can you do starting this week to show others that you know Jesus?

My Promise Stone

Objective:

Help children remember to keep their promises to God by obeying Him every day.

Materials Needed

- Stone-shaped paper cutout (1 per child)
- Crayons or markers
- Stickers (optional)

Teacher Preparation

Prepare one stone-shaped paper for each child. Write "I Will Follow Jesus" at the top, leaving space for children to decorate.

Instruction for the Teacher

1. Explain that Joshua placed a big stone to remind God's people of the promise they made to serve Him.
2. Give each child a stone-shaped paper.
3. Invite the children to colour and decorate their stone.
4. Read the words "I Will Follow Jesus" together and have the children repeat them aloud.
5. Encourage each child to take the stone home and place it somewhere they will see it every day. Remind them that the stone is a reminder to keep their promise by loving, obeying, and following Jesus.

Monday, 28 June 2027:

The people quickly told Joshua they would serve God.
But Joshua wanted them to really mean it. It is easy to say the right words without meaning them. Ask God to help your words and your actions match.

Tuesday, 29 June 2027:

Pray that God would help you follow Him fully, not just when it is easy.

Wednesday, 30 June 2027:

God wants us to obey Him even when nobody is watching.
Think about how you act when you are alone.
Ask God to help your heart be the same in private as it is in public.

Thursday, 1 July 2027:

The people of Israel said it out loud, "We will serve the Lord." Say your own promise to God out loud today. Pray that God would help you keep it, even after today is over.

Friday, 2 July 2027:

Joshua set up a stone so Israel would remember their promise to God. Think of a way to remind yourself of your own promise to God this week. Ask God to help you stay faithful, even after you forget the excitement of today.

Saturday, 3 July 2027:

Week 46

Pass It On

12 – 17 July 2027

Memory Verse

“After that whole generation died, the next generation grew up. This new generation did not know about the Lord or what he had done for the Israelites.”

– Judges 2:10 (ERV)

Opening Question:

1. What is your favourite team sport?
2. When playing a team sport, why do you think it's important to pass the ball to your teammates?

Read God's Word with Me!

- ☐ Joshua 24:29-31;
- ☐ Judges 2:7-10;
- ☐ Ephesians 4:11-16

Today's Lesson

Joshua's story is now over. He lived a very long life. In fact, he was one hundred and ten years old when he died.

During his remaining days and while the older leaders who outlived him were still alive, the Israelites kept their promise and they remained faithful in serving God.

But after they died, a new group of kids grew up. This new generation of Israelites didn't know the Lord at all. They did not know the awesome things God had done for their families. They didn't know how God cared for them and how the Lord fulfilled every promise He made to their ancestors. Ouch, that's really sad! It means that somewhere along the way, nobody had really passed on to them who God is and what He did for them.

#1. Pass On Your Faith to Others

Think about a family recipe that only your grandma knows how to make. If she never teaches it to anyone, that recipe is gone forever. And no one gets to taste it again. Faith works the same way. It is not enough for just one person to know God. It is not enough that you're the only person who has a relationship with God.

You must pass on your faith to others. Share Jesus with your family and friends and make sure that everyone you know also knows Jesus.

#2. Learn How to Disciple Others

You do not have to be a grown-up to help someone learn about God. You could teach a younger sibling a Bible verse. You could help a friend understand a Bible story you just learned. This is a small part of what we do in discipleship. It means we are helping others learn more about God and grow closer to Him. How cool would it be to be the reason someone else learns to love God?

#3. Get Your Own Story with God

Hearing your mom or dad tell you about God is not the same as knowing God yourself.

It is like hearing about a fun trip instead of going on the trip yourself. You need your own friendship with God. You need to know Him personally and experience His goodness in your life. Old stories about what He did for someone else are not enough. You need your own story too!

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's important to pass on our faith to others?
2. Do you have people in your life who still don't know Jesus? What can you do this week to help them get closer to God?

Activity Time all ages

Pass It On Challenge!

Objective:

Help children understand that God's love and His Word are meant to be shared with others.

Materials Needed:

- Soft ball, beanbag, or plush toy
- Music (optional)

Teacher Preparation:

Have the children stand or sit in a circle with a soft ball ready.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Explain that the ball represents God's love, which we should pass on to others.
2. Play music (or clap a steady beat) while the children pass the ball around the circle.
3. When the music stops, the child holding the ball completes one challenge:
 - Ages 3–5: Say, "Jesus loves you!" or name one person they can share God's love with.

- Ages 6–9: Name one way to show God's love or tell who they can share Jesus with.
- Ages 10–12: Say part of the Memory Verse or share one way they can help someone grow closer to God.

4. Everyone says, "Pass it on!" before the game continues.

5. Challenge: For older children, make the next round more exciting by passing the ball with one hand or without talking. For toddlers, simply let them pass the ball to the next child with the teacher's help if needed.

Monday, 12 July 2027:

Joshua lived a long life and served God faithfully all his days.

As long as he and the older leaders were around, the people kept serving God too. Ask God to help you serve Him faithfully your whole life, not just for a season.

Tuesday, 13 July 2027:

After Joshua died, a new generation grew up that did not know the Lord. That is a sad reminder that faith has to be shared, not just left behind.

Pray that God would help you share what you know about Him to others.

Wednesday, 14 July 2027:

You do not have to wait until you are older to teach someone about God. Think of one younger kid you could share a Bible verse with this week.

Ask God to help you be brave enough to share what you know.

Thursday, 15 July 2027:

Knowing about God is not the same as knowing God.

Ask yourself if your faith is really your own, not just something you have heard about.

Pray that God would become real and personal to you today.

Friday, 16 July 2027:

God gives some people the grace to teach and to help others grow.

Think about who has helped you grow closer to God.

Thank God for that person today, and ask Him to help you do the same for someone else.

Saturday, 17 July 2027:

Your faith is not just for you, it is meant to be shared with others too.

Pray that God would use your life to help someone else fall in love with Him.

This is Not Your Final Home

19 – 24 July 2027

Memory Verse

“It was by faith that Joseph spoke about the Israelites leaving Egypt while he was dying. He told them what to do with his body.”

– Hebrews 11:22 (ICB)

Opening Question:

1. Where is your favourite place to go to?
2. Is there a place you visited before that you would like to visit again?
3. Who was Joseph in the Bible?

Read God's Word with Me!

- ☐ Joshua 24:32;
- ☐ Genesis 50:24-26;
- ☐ Hebrews 11:22;
- ☐ Ephesians 1:9-11

Today's Lesson

Long before Joshua's story ever began, there was an Israelite man who lived in Egypt named Joseph. He was a very important person during his time and he's actually the second-in-command to Egypt's King.

Because of Joseph's unusual wisdom, the King appointed him to take care of the whole country. A lot of lives were saved because of what Joseph did. And that's why he was loved by so many people.

Despite all his success, before Joseph died, he asked his family and his people for a special promise. He told them, "One day, God will bring you out of Egypt. He will take you to the land He promised us. When that happens, please carry my bones with you." Hundreds of years later, the Israelites finally left Egypt. And they kept their ancestors' promise to him. They carried Joseph's bones all the way to the Promised Land God gave them. And they buried him there, just like Joseph had asked.

#1. Joseph Kept Believing God's Promise

Originally, God gave His word to Abraham about the Promised Land. Abraham was Joseph's great-great-grandfather. So, Joseph knew that the Israelites, which were Abraham's descendants, were not supposed to stay in Egypt. He believed that one day God's promise would come true. But Joseph would not be alive to see it. So, he planned for it and told his people to take his bones to the Promised Land when God fulfils His promise to them. We should do the same. When God gives you a promise, believe that it's going to happen no matter what.

#2. Joseph Knew that Egypt Was Not His Final Home

Joseph had an amazing job and a nice life in Egypt. He could have called it home and chose to just stay there. But deep down, he knew that his final home was the land God had promised his family. So he prepared to get there when the time came. In the same way, this world is not our final home. God prepared a better place for us in the future.

#3. Jesus Will Raise His People and the Rapture

Joseph believed God's promise so strongly that, before he died, he asked that his bones should one day be carried to the Promised Land. His faith reminds us that death is not the end for God's people. The Bible teaches that when Jesus returns, believers who have died will be raised, and believers who are still alive will be caught up together with them to meet the Lord. This event is often called the Rapture. God's children should therefore live ready for Jesus, trusting His promise and looking forward with hope to being with Him for ever.

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think Joseph still believed in God's promise, even though he knew he would not be alive to see it happen?
2. What is something about heaven that makes you feel hopeful or excited?

Today's Lesson

Are you familiar with the word “priest”? In the Bible, the priests were a special group of people chosen by God to represent the people before Him and to represent Him before the people.

It means, they were called by God to be the “bridge” that connects Him and the Israelites. It’s a very special job. And only Aaron, the brother of Moses, and his descendants were allowed to become priests of God. You can say that the priests were supposed to be really close to God because of their jobs. In Israel, Aaron’s family served as priests at the tabernacle. But God also wanted the whole nation to represent Him to the world. Through Jesus, every believer can now come directly to God and can pray for others. We are all priests through Jesus Christ.

#1. You Can Approach and Talk to God Yourself

You do not need someone else to talk to God for you. You can pray by yourself anytime and anywhere you want. God wants to hear your own voice, too. Isn’t that amazing?

#2. Pray for Others As Well

There’s a story in the Bible where God became angry with the Israelites because of their disobedience. He punished them with a deadly disease called a ‘plague’ and a lot of people died. To stop the plague, Aaron the High Priest, stood in between the plague and the people. And through his action, many people were saved. You can do the same thing, too. All you have to do is pray for others. When you know that someone is facing a big problem, you can stand in between them and their problem by praying for them.

#3. Everyone Has a Part to Play

The priests had a special responsibility to carry the people before God. Their special garments had stones representing the tribes of Israel, reminding them that they served God for the sake of others. In the same way, everyone has a part to play in God’s work. You can pray for others, encourage them, invite them to church, share Jesus with them, and help them grow closer to God. You do not have to wait until you are older to serve God. Everyone has a part to play. Ask God, “Who can I pray for, help, encourage or bring closer to You today?”

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's important to follow God's calling for us to be His priests?
2. Who is someone you could pray for the next time you talk to God?

Activity Time all ages

Prayer Hands Chain

Objective:

Help children understand that God calls them to pray for others, grow closer to Him, and bring people to Jesus.

Materials Needed:

- Coloured construction paper
- Pencil or marker
- Child-safe scissors
- Crayons or Coloured pencils
- Glue, tape, or stapler
- String (optional)

Teacher Preparation:

- Prepare handprint templates or trace each child's hand.
- Make one sample Prayer Hands Chain.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Give each child a handprint template.
2. Ask them to write or draw:
 - Ages 3–5: Draw one person they want to pray for.
 - Ages 6–9: Write the person's name and one short prayer.
 - Ages 10–12: Write the person's name, a prayer request, and one way they can encourage or invite that person to church.

3. Let the children decorate their handprints.
4. Connect all the handprints to create one Prayer Hands Chain and display it in the classroom.
5. End by praying together for every person represented on the chain.

Monday, 26 July 2027:

One of Aaron's sons, Eleazar, was a priest who prayed for the people. But God always wanted everyone to be close to Him. You do not need someone else to talk to God for you. Ask God to help you talk to Him all by yourself today.

Tuesday, 27 July 2027:

Instead of running away to safety, Aaron ran toward trouble to pray for the people. Think of someone going through a hard time right now. Pray for them today, just like Aaron did for his people.

Wednesday, 28 July 2027:

God wants to hear your very own voice when you pray. Pray something out loud today even if it is short and simple. Thank God that He always wants to hear from you.

Thursday, 29 July 2027:

Priests carried people's names on their shoulders and over their hearts. That means they cared for people with both strength and love. Ask God to help you care about others, not just help them because you have to.

Friday, 30 July 2027:

You belong to God's family. That means you get to be close to Him just like a priest in the old days. Thank God today that you do not have to stay far away from Him.

Saturday, 31 July 2027:

Praying for other people is a powerful way to help them. Pray for one person in your family today. Ask God to help you keep praying for others all week long.

- ☐ Ephesians 6:24

Today's Lesson

This week we look back at everything we have learned about Joshua and God's people. It's been a whole year of studying the Book of Joshua and we learned a lot!

Going back to what we've learned, we can see that anytime God was going to do something big for His people, Joshua kept saying the same thing over and over to the Israelites: "Get ready!"

Before they crossed the Jordan River to conquer the Promised Land, Joshua told them, "Get ready. Tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things." The Lord wanted their hearts and minds ready for what He's about to do. He did not just want them to ready their swords and shields. God wanted their hearts to be clean and prepared because He's going to do something super awesome.

#1. Get Ready Before the Big Moment

You do not wait until the game starts to put on your shoes. You get ready first. God wanted His people prepared before He did something big for them. Isn't that smart? Getting your heart ready means praying, saying sorry for anything you said or you did wrong, and trusting God before the big moment even comes. That way, you are not rushing around at the last minute.

#2. Let God Clean Out the Old Stuff

Before the people could move forward, God wanted them to do something very important. He wanted them to leave their old habits behind for good. It's like cleaning out a messy closet to make room for new toys. It might feel hard at first because you might not want to let go of old stuff. But you have to do it to make space for something better.

#3. Don't Hide What's Wrong

In the beginning of our study of the book of Joshua, we met a man named "Achan." He was a troublemaker who took something he was not supposed to take. That caused a big problem for everyone. So God punished him. Hiding a problem does not make it go away. It just grows bigger and bigger. It is always better to tell the truth quickly, even when it feels scary.

Discussion Question:

1. Why do you think it's important to be ready when you're praying for God to do something big?
2. Why do you think it is better to tell the truth quickly instead of hiding a mistake?

Activity Time Ages 3-9

Clean Heart, Ready Heart

Objective:

Help children learn that God wants us to prepare our hearts by letting go of wrong choices and growing closer to Him.

Materials Needed:

- Heart-shaped paper
- Crayons/markers
- Basket or box labeled "Give It to God"
- Class poster: "A Heart Ready for God"

Teacher Preparation:

Prepare materials and write simple words on the board for toddlers to copy (e.g., pray, obey, love, share, help).

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Ask children to draw or write one thing they want God to help them change or grow in.
2. Toddlers may copy a word from the board to complete their heart.
3. Let children place their hearts in the "Give It to God" box and create a new heart showing how they want to grow with God.
4. Add their hearts to the class poster and remind them that we prepare our hearts for God by trusting and obeying Him.

Activity Time Ages 10-12

Clean Out the Closet

Objective:

Teach children that God wants us to remove wrong attitudes and habits to make room for spiritual growth.

Materials Needed:

- Paper
- Trash bin/box
- Markers

Teacher Preparation:

Prepare a box labeled "Things I Give to God."

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Explain that just like cleaning a messy room, we need to remove things that keep us from growing with God.
2. Ask children to write things they want to surrender to God (fear, anger, selfishness, disobedience, etc.).
3. Let them place their papers in the box as a symbol of surrender.
4. Have them write one godly habit they want to replace it with (prayer, kindness, honesty, obedience).
5. Remind them that God prepares our hearts before He does great things.

Monday, 9 August 2027:

Joshua told the people to get ready because God was about to do something amazing. Getting ready means praying and trusting God before the big moment comes. Ask God to help your heart be ready for whatever He has planned for you today.

Tuesday, 10 August 2027:

God asked His people to leave old habits behind before moving into something new. Letting go of old stuff can feel hard, but it makes room for something better. Pray that God would help you let go of anything old that is holding you back.

Wednesday, 11 August 2027:

A hidden problem caused big trouble for everyone. Hiding a mistake never makes it disappear. Ask God to help you be brave enough to tell the truth quickly even when it is hard.

Thursday, 12 August 2027:

Even after doing something wrong, God gave His people a fresh start once they told the truth. God is always ready to forgive when we come to Him honestly. Thank God today that He gives second chances.

Friday, 13 August 2027:

God wants your love for Him to stay strong, especially on your good days, not just your hard ones. Ask God to help you keep your heart close to Him, no matter how life is going.

Saturday, 14 August 2027:

Week 51

Fight the Right Way!

15 – 20 August 2027

Memory Verse

– Ephesians 6:11 (NKJV)

Opening Question:

1. Have you ever dressed up like a superhero or a soldier before?
2. Do you like doing things by yourself, or do you like asking someone for help? Why?

Read God's Word with Me!

Today's Lesson

Do you remember this story? Right before the big battle of Jericho, Joshua saw a stranger holding a sword. Joshua walked right up to him and asked, "Are you on our side or their side?" The stranger answered, "Neither one. I am the commander of the Lord's army." Joshua bowed down right away.

That moment taught Joshua something important. Even if he's the leader of the Israelite soldiers, God was the One really in charge of the battle. Every "battle" we face works the same way. God is always the real boss of the battle, no matter how big or small it is.

#1. Let God Be the Boss of the Battle

Think about a team captain who calls the plays during a game. You do not argue with the plan. You just follow it. When you face a big problem, let God lead instead of doing whatever you think is best. Isn't it nice to know you do not have to figure it out all by yourself?

#2. You're Not Fighting People

Sometimes when a friend is mean to us, we want to fight back. But the real problem is often not the person. There is something bigger going on. So instead of letting anger or hurt feelings control, choose to pray instead. In short, pray instead of fight. So next time someone tries to hurt you, pray about it before you react.

#3. Put On God's Armour

You would not ride a bike without a helmet. In the same way, God gives us armour to stay safe in tough moments. Things like truth, faith, and prayer keep our hearts and minds safe. Put on your armour every single day, before you even know what kind of day it will be.

Discussion Question:

1. What is one big problem you could let God be the Boss of this week?
2. Which part of God's armour, such as truth, faith or prayer, do you want to remember to use every day?

Ages 3–5

Colour God's Armour!

Objective:

Help children recognise that God gives us spiritual armour so we can stand strong and make right choices.

Materials Needed:

- “Put On God's Armour” colouring worksheet
- Crayons or washable markers

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Review Ephesians 6:10–18 in simple words.
2. Let each child colour the armour picture.
3. Point to the shield, helmet and sword and say together: “God helps me stand strong!”
4. End with a short prayer asking God for help to do what is right.

See the worksheet after the activity section.

Ages 6–9

Armour Match-Up

Objective:

Help children connect each piece of God's armour with a practical way to live faithfully.

Materials Needed:

- “Armour Match-Up” worksheet
- Pencil
- Bible

Teacher Preparation:

Review Ephesians 6:10–18 and the meaning of each piece of armour.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Read the armour names aloud together.
2. Children draw lines to match each armour piece with its meaning.
3. Ask volunteers to explain one match in their own words.
4. Close by asking: “Which piece do you most need this week?”

See the worksheet after the activity section.

Ages 10–12

Fight the Right Way: Battle Plan

Objective:

Help students apply prayer, Scripture and God's armour to real-life conflict, fear and difficult decisions.

Materials Needed:

- "Fight the Right Way" worksheet
- Bible
- Pencil or pen

Teacher Preparation:

Review Ephesians 6:10–18 and 2 Corinthians 10:3–5.

Instruction for the Teacher:

1. Ask students to choose one real challenge they are facing.
2. Use the sequence: STOP → PRAY → WORD → OBEY → TRUST.
3. Have them identify which part of God's armour is most relevant to the challenge.
4. Invite optional sharing, then pray together for wisdom and self-control.

See the worksheet after the activity section.

Daily Devotional

15 – 20 August 2027

Monday 15 August 2027:

Joshua met the Commander of the Lord's army and bowed down right away. God is always the real boss of every battle we face. Ask God to help you let Him lead, instead of trying to handle everything by yourself.

Tuesday 16 August 2027:

God knows exactly what kind of help you need. Pray and ask God to show you how to handle whatever you are facing today.

Wednesday 17 August 2027:

Some battles are won by waiting and some are won by trusting God even when His plan does not make sense right away. Ask God to help you trust His timing, even when you want to rush.

Thursday 18 August 2027:

When someone hurts you, the real fight is often against anger or hurt feelings, not against the person. Pray for someone who has hurt you today.

Friday 19 August 2027:

Not everything that looks like a good idea is actually from God. Ask God to help you check with Him before saying yes to something new.

Saturday 20 August 2027:

Put on God's armour today: truth, faith, and prayer. Ask God to help you remember to put on your armour every single day.

Ages 3-5: Colour this!

TACEF VISION/MANDATE

Raising an army with a vision of revival through focused discipleship, prayer and the ministry of the Word; to groom a generation of Godly and heaven-conscious youths and adults who are conformed to the image of Christ and to live each day to promote the purpose of God in The African Church and advance the cause of evangelism/revival to the world at large. The fellowship is raised to be the "repairer of the breach", "to build the old waste places" and "to raise the foundation of many generations". (Isa 58 vs 12).

It is important to know and note that:

1. TACEF/TACESF is not an association, society or an ordinary group, it is a heavenly calling.
2. TACEF/TACESF is not a gathering of youths, but a gathering of God's end-time army: students and non-students of all age groups learning under the tutelage of the Spirit of God.
3. TACEF has a revival mandate to The African Church and will remain committed to serving God's will in the Church.

Our motivation is that we strongly believe that The African Church is at the threshold of a great revival in the dispensation of God and we are fully persuaded that the Lord is equipping the Church for the end-time revival.

Our prayers and pursuit therefore shall continue to be the promotion of the purpose of God in The African Church. We shall continue in prayers and the ministry of the word, as we trust the Lord for a season of total spiritual awakening. We trust the Lord that in all of our local churches, the Word of God will take pre-eminence and the Spirit of the Lord will dominate. We believe the Lord for a rekindled passion for the dying souls under the grip of the evil one and a renewed pursuit of holiness without which no man shall see the Lord.
